

- Many blogs provide commentary or news on a particular subject; others function as more personal online diaries.
 - A typical blog combines text, images, and links to other blogs, web pages, and other media related to its topic.
 - Most blogs are interactive, allowing visitors to leave comments and even message each other via widgets on the blogs and it is this interactivity that distinguishes them from other static websites, and makes them particularly attractive in teaching and learning.

The Oxford Handbook of Levinas
Michael L. Morgan, 2019-04-10 Emmanuel Levinas 1906 1995 emerged as an influential philosophical voice in the final decades of the twentieth century and his reputation has continued to flourish and increase in our own day His central themes the primacy of the ethical and the core of ethics as our responsibility to and for others speak to readers from a host of disciplines and perspectives However his writings and thought are challenging and difficult The Oxford Handbook of Levinas contains essays that aim to clarify and engage Levinas and his writings in a number of ways Some focus on central themes of his work others on the ways in which he read and was influenced by figures from Plato Hobbes Descartes and Kant to Blanchot Husserl Heidegger and Derrida And there are essays on how his thinking has been appropriated in moral and political thought psychology film criticism and more and on the relation between his thinking and religious themes and traditions Finally several essays deal primarily with how readers have criticized him and found him wanting The volume exposes and explores both the depth of Levinas's philosophical work and the range of applications to which it has been put with special attention to clarifying why his interests in the human condition the crisis of civilization the centrality and character of ethics and morality and the very meaning of human experience should be of interest to the widest range of readers

Surviving Internal School Politics Beverley H. Johns, Mary Z. McGrath, Sarup R. Mathur, 2013 This book provides

readers with the basic coping strategies of surviving within the political arena of their schools If educators want to survive they should read this book and find practical strategies from those who have collectively worked within the school setting for over 75 years voices of experience to share helpful coping skills When educators are bogged down with gossip ostracism and upsetting events they will not be able to work effectively with their students and coworkers These dynamics are illustrated throughout the book through the use of fictitious educators who portray staff dealing with situations to which readers can relate In each chapter readers will find an action plan designed to provide tools that educators should utilize in surviving internal politics
