Subversions Affirmations:

Indigenous Bodies Jacqueline Fear-Segal, Rebecca Tillett, 2013-10-01 An interdisciplinary exploration of indigenous bodies This interdisciplinary collection of essays by both Natives and non Natives explores presentations and representations of indigenous bodies in historical and contemporary contexts Recent decades have seen a wealth of scholarship on the body in a wide range of disciplines Indigenous Bodies extends this scholarship in exciting new ways bringing together the disciplinary expertise of Native studies scholars from around the world The book is particularly concerned with the Native body as a site of persistent fascination colonial oppression and indigenous agency along with the endurance of these legacies within Native communities At the core of this collection lies a dual commitment to exposing numerous and diverse disempowerments of indigenous peoples and to recognizing the many ways in which these same people retained and or reclaimed agency Issues of reviewing relocating and reclaiming bodies are examined in the chapters which are paired to bring to light juxtapositions and connections and further the transnational development of indigenous studies Jaune Quick-to-See Smith Carolyn Kastner, 2013-10-15 The first full length critical analysis of the paintings of Jaune Quick to See Smith this book focuses on Smith s role as a modernist in addition to her status as a wellknown Native American artist With close readings of Smith s work Carolyn Kastner shows how Smith simultaneously contributes to and critiques American art and its history Smith has distinguished herself as a modernist both in her pursuit of abstraction and her expressive technique but too often her identity as a Native American artist has overshadowed these aspects of her work Addressing specific themes in Smith s career Kastner situates Smith within specific historical and cultural moments of American art comparing her work to the abstractions of Kandinsky and Mir as well as to the pop art of Rauschenberg and Johns She discusses Smith s appropriation of pop culture icons like the Barbie doll reimagined by the artist as Barbie Plenty Horses As Kastner considers how Smith constructs each new series of artworks within the artistic social and political discourse of its time she defines her contribution to American modernism and its history Discussing the ways in which Smith draws upon her cultural heritage both Native and non Native Kastner demonstrates how Smith has expanded the definitions of American and modernist art

Countermemory April L. O'Brien, James Chase Sanchez, 2025 Countermemory A Rhetoric of Resistance investigates the interdisciplinary dimensions of countermemory through a rhetorical lens by drawing upon a mixed methodological approach that includes site based analysis participant observation textual analysis and historiography The authors apply these approaches to physical locations such as memorial sites and museums but also in digital spaces like music videos tv shows and maps to show the different ways that countermemory may exist Junctures in Women's Leadership Judith K. Brodsky, Ferris Olin, 2018-09-20 In this third volume of the series Junctures Case Studies in Women s Leadership Judith K Brodsky and Ferris Olin profile female leaders in music theater dance and visual art The diverse women included in Junctures in Women s Leadership The Arts have made their mark by serving as executives or founders of art organizations by working as activists to support the arts or by challenging stereotypes about women in the arts The contributors explore several important themes such as the role of feminist leadership in changing cultural values regarding inclusivity and gender parity as well as the feminization of the arts and the power of the arts as cultural institutions Amongst the women discussed are Bertha Honor Palmer Louise Noun Samella Lewis Julia Miles Miriam Col n Jaune Quick To See Smith Bernice Steinbaum Anne d Harnoncourt Martha Wilson Jawole Willa Jo Zollar Kim Berman Gilane Tawadros Joanna Smith and Veomanee Douangdala

Art for a New Understanding Mindy N. Besaw, Candice Hopkins, Manuela Well-Off-Man, 2018-10-24 Art for a New Understanding an exhibition from Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art that opened in October 2018 seeks to radically expand and reposition the narrative of American art since 1950 by charting a history of the development of contemporary Indigenous art from the United States and Canada beginning when artists moved from more regionally based conversations and practices to national and international contemporary art contexts This fully illustrated volume includes essays by art historians and historians and reflections by the artists included in the collection Also included are key contemporary writings from the 1950s onward by artists scholars and critics investigating the themes of transculturalism and pan Indian identity traditional practices conducted in radically new ways displacement forced migration shadow histories the role of personal mythologies as a means to reimagine the future and much more As both a survey of the development of Indigenous art from the 1950s to the present and a consideration of Native artists within contemporary art more broadly Art for a New Understanding expands the definition of American art and sets the tone for future considerations of the subject It is an essential publication for any institution or individual with an interest in contemporary Native American art and an invaluable resource in ongoing scholarly considerations of the American contemporary art landscape at large

Engaged Resistance Dean Rader, 2011-04-01 From Sherman Alexie s films to the poetry and fiction of Louise Erdrich and Leslie Marmon Silko to the paintings of Jaune Quick To See Smith and the sculpture of Edgar Heap of Birds Native American movies literature and art have become increasingly influential garnering critical praise and enjoying mainstream popularity Recognizing that the time has come for a critical assessment of this exceptional artistic output and its significance to American Indian and American issues Dean Rader offers the first interdisciplinary examination of how American Indian artists filmmakers and writers tell their own stories Beginning with rarely seen photographs documents and paintings from the Alcatraz Occupation in 1969 and closing with an innovative reading of the National Museum of the American Indian Rader initiates a conversation about how Native Americans have turned to artistic expression as a means of articulating cultural sovereignty autonomy and survival Focusing on figures such as author director Sherman Alexie Flight Face and Smoke Signals artist Jaune Quick To See Smith director Chris Eyre Skins author Louise Erdrich Jacklight The Last Report on the Miracles at Little No Horse sculptor Edgar Heap of Birds novelist Leslie Marmon Silko sculptor Allen Houser filmmaker and actress Valerie Red Horse and other writers including Joy Harjo LeAnne Howe and David Treuer Rader shows how these artists use aesthetic expression as a means of both engagement with and resistance to the dominant U S culture Raising a constellation of new questions about Native cultural production Rader greatly increases our understanding of what aesthetic modes of resistance can accomplish that legal or political actions cannot as well as why Native peoples are turning to creative forms of resistance to assert deeply held ethical values Shakespearean Subversions Richard Hillman,1992 This book traces manifestations of trickery and subversion across the Shakespearean canon in such a way as to bring together several diverse strands of critical thought By isolating a principle of subversiveness that cuts across the standard categories Richard Hillman shows a relation amongst otherwise disparate aspects of the plays and delineates broad patterns of development In Shakespearean Subversions discussion of such obviously subversive character types as the Clown the Fool and the Machiavellian villain is incorporated into a broader concern with disruptive energy not as a thematic motif but as a generative influence on textual production Hillman suggests that this influence may be exercised paradoxically through the counter claims of social order The book situates this central idea in relation to a number of theoretical positions including New Historicism Cultural Materialism and Bakhtin s concept of the carnivalesque The primary conceptual anchor is supplied by recent anthropological interpretations of the folklore figure known as the Trickster The subsequent plan of the book is wide ranging there is discussion of almost every play with some unusual associations across boundaries of genre and a number of radically unconventional specific interpretations Shakespearean Subversions will appeal to specialists and to any reader with a serious interest in Shakespearean drama Exotic Subversions in Nineteenth-century French Fiction Jennifer Yee,2017-07-05 In the course of the nineteenth century France built up a colonial empire second only to Britain s The literary tradition in which it dealt with its colonial Other is frequently understood in terms of Edward Said s description of Orientalism as both a Western projection and a will to govern over the Orient There is however a body of works that eludes such a simple categorisation offering glimpses of colonial resistance of a critique of imperialist hegemony or of a blurring of the boundaries between the Self and the Other Some of the ways in which the imperialist enterprise is subverted in the metropolitan literature of this period are examined in this volume through detailed case studies of key works by Chateaubriand Hugo Flaubert and Segalen American Indian Quarterly ,2008 Native North American Art Janet Catherine Berlo,Ruth Bliss Phillips,2015 This lively introductory survey of indigenous North American arts from ancient times to the present explores both the shared themes and imagery found across the continent and the distinctive traditions of each region Focusing on the richness of artwork created in the US and Canada Native North American Art Second Edition discusses 3 000 years of architecture wood and rock carvings basketry dance masks clothing and more The expanded text discusses twentieth and twenty first century arts in all media including works by James Luna Kent Monkman Nadia Myre Jaune Quick to See Smith Will Wilson and many more Authors Berlo and Phillips incorporate new research and scholarship examining such issues as art and ethics gender representation and the colonial encounter By bringing into one conversation the seemingly separate realms of the sacred and the secular the political and the domestic and the ceremonial and the commercial Native North American Art shows how visual arts not only maintain the integrity of spiritual and social systems within Native North American societies but have long been part of a cross cultural experience as well The Subversion of Christianity Jacques Ellul, 2011-06-02 Pointing to the many contradictions between the Bible and the practice of the church Jacques Ellul asserts in this provocative and stimulating book that what we today call Christianity is actually far removed from the revelation of God Successive generations have reinterpreted Scripture and modeled it after their own cultures thus moving society further from the truth of the original gospel The church also perverted the gospel message for instead of simply doing away with pagan practice and belief it reconstituted the sacred set up its own religious forms and thus resacralized the world Ellul develops several areas in which this perversion is most obvious including the church's emphasis on moralism and its teaching in the political sphere The heart of the problem he says is that we have not accepted the fact that Christianity is a scandal we attempt to make it acceptable and easy and thus pervert its true message Ultimately however Ellul remains hopeful For in spite of all that has been done to subvert the message of God the Holy Spirit continues to move in the world Christianity writes Ellul never carries the day decisively against Christ Interlocking Subversion in Government Departments United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1953 Critique, Subversion, and Chinese Philosophy Hans-Georg Moeller, Andrew K. Whitehead, 2020-11-12 Bringing together a number of case studies this book shows how from early on Chinese philosophical discourses unfolded through innovation and the subversion of dominant forms of thinking Narrowing in on the commonplace Chinese motto that the three teachings of Confucianism Daoism and Buddhism are joined into one as if there had never been any substantial differences between or within these schools of thought a team of esteemed contributors challenge established views They explain how the Daoist tradition provided a variety of alternatives to prevailing Confucian master narratives reveal why the long history of Confucianism is itself full of ambiguities disputes and competing ideas and discuss how in Buddhist theory and practice the subversion of unquestioned beliefs and attitudes has been a prime methodological and therapeutic device By drawing attention to unorthodox voices and subversion as a method this exciting collection reveals that for too long the traditional division into three teachings has failed to do justice to the diversity and subtlety found in the numerous discourses constituting the history of Chinese philosophy Critique Subversion and Chinese Philosophy finally makes such innovative disruptions visible Interlocking Subversion in Government Departments United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee to Investigate the Administration of the Internal Security Act and Other Internal Security Laws, 1953 Combined Reports on Communist Subversion Organization of American States, 1965 Aníbal Quijano Aníbal Quijano, 2024-03-01 The essays in this volume encompass nearly thirty years of influential Peruvian sociologist Aníbal Quijano's work on coloniality coloniality of power and colonial matrix of power bringing it to an English reading audience for the first time Castro-communist Subversion in the Western Hemisphere United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs, 1963 Classified material has been deleted Castro-communist Subversion in the Western Hemisphere, 1963 Subversions of Desire Epifanio San Juan, 1988-01-01 This contextualizing of the imagination reveals two dimensions in the writer's discursive strategy the ideological function of reconciling contradictions and the utopian drive to subvert imperialist subjection via the invention of an egalitarian resurgent Filipino community the fulfillment of the dream of the 1896 Revolution Joaquin's corpus is therefore as conflicted as torn by the same contradictions as the body politic which his art seeks to mediate P 4 of cover Betrayal and Other Acts of Subversion Leslie Bow, 2011-10-16 Asian American women have long dealt with charges of betrayal within and beyond their communities Images of their disloyalty pervade American culture from the daughter who is branded a traitor to family for adopting American ways to the war bride who immigrates in defiance of her countrymen to a figure such as Yoko Ono accused of breaking up the Beatles with her seduction of John Lennon Leslie Bow here explores how representations of females transgressing the social order play out in literature by Asian American women Questions of ethnic belonging sexuality identification and political allegiance are among the issues raised by such writers as Jeanne Wakatsuki Houston Bharati Mukherjee Jade Snow Wong Amy Tan Sky Lee Le Ly Hayslip Wendy Law Yone Fiona Cheong and Nellie Wong Beginning with the notion that feminist and Asian American identity are mutually exclusive Bow analyzes how women serve as boundary markers between ethnic or national collectives in order to reveal the male based nature of social cohesion In exploring the relationship between femininity and citizenship liberal feminism and American racial discourse and women's domestic abuse and human rights the author suggests that Asian American women not only mediate sexuality's construction as a determiner of loyalty but also manipulate that construction as a tool of political persuasion in their writing The language of betrayal she argues offers a potent rhetorical means of signaling how belonging is policed by individuals and by the state Bow's bold analysis exposes the stakes behind maintaining ethnic feminist and national alliances particularly for women who claim multiple loyalties
