The Cheshire Teens Story Ed Kenerson, Al Baines, 2008-09 The sports world coaches us to practice the basics over and over until we eventually achieve excellence and ultimate success Al Baines understood the basics of effective ministry and applied these to a fledgling youth group in a small rural church of two hundred adults Within two years of implementing these basic principles the church's youth program grew to over half the size of its adult congregation This book will examine these principles and show the results that were obtained They can bring genuine spiritual impact to any church leadership team looking to answer the question How can we build an effective youth program in our church The time frame has changed but the principles remain trustworthy Ed Kenerson attended Gordon College B A Psychology and Gordon Conwell Seminary Masters of Religious Education and has over 10 years experience in Christian Education and Youth Ministry At present he manages his own training and communications business called Steps To Success delivering multi media presentations to businesses in areas of career management customer service and time management In addition he reaches out to teenagers in high schools through Career Coach USA a strategic ministry designed to teach young people the principles of both personal and professional success Ed is married to Kathy with two children and eight grandchildren

Youthwork After Christendom Jo Pimlott, Nigel Pimlott, 2013-08-01 Young people have been leaving the church for several decades and are largely absent from many of our congregations Most young people have no desire to embrace a church perceived as old fashioned but remain interested in spirituality How can young people be empowered to follow Jesus in a relevant and new way that is responsive to the challenges of the current context How can real hope and opportunity be realised so that the next generation will approach faith without a Christendom mindset By examining the influences of the past exploring the stories of those young people who have been partaking in church and by considering the views of those not connected to Church this book offers insights theology practical application and some hope for the future Those charged with responsibility are encouraged to seriously consider passing on the baton to young people now for the sake of the future Like it or not the destiny of the church is in their hands

The Cat and the Toaster Douglas A. Hall, Judy Hall, Steve Daman, 2010-01-01 Living system ministry is an approach to Christian ministry in the Western world that recognizes the differences between cats the world God created and toasters the world we create using our technology and our capacities limited as they are The church is the Body of Christ a living system Neighborhoods cities and cultures too are complex and interrelated living social systems Why then would we try to do God's work in a church or social system using tools and methods designed for non living systems We do it because our culture is very organizationally and technologically centered We have grown accustomed to thinking of our social contexts not as living systems but as things we can easily measure and control Embracing both perspective and procedure Living System Ministry is about doing better ministry by seeing a better picture of what exists in the total system Like farmers rather than technicians we learn to be involved in and to be in tune with what causes fruitfulness We never cause fruit to happen God does But as our work becomes better aligned with what God is already doing in his complex living system environment there is an explosion of life We discover the fruit that remains Writing from his forty five years of experience as an urban ministry practitioner in Boston Dr Doug Hall introduces us to an approach to missions that recognizes the lead role of God s larger living social systems as powerful engines for doing far more in our world than we can even begin to imagine
