

When to Use "so" and "such"

So

- "So" is used with adjectives and adverbs without a noun. For example, "so big," "so quickly."
- Avoid using "so" with a noun directly. Instead, use "such". For example, say "It was such a surprise" instead of "It was so a surprise".

Using "So" in Sentences

When you use "so" in a sentence, it usually follows this pattern:

- So + Adjective/Adverb + That: Sometimes, after saying how much or how little of a quality something has, you might want to say what happened because of it. For this, we use "that" after the adjective or adverb.
 - Example: "The soup was so hot that I couldn't eat it immediately."

Such

- "Such" is used with nouns, and often an adjective is used before the noun. For example, "such a big house," "such an interesting book."
- Do not use "such" with just an adjective or an adverb. Instead, use "so". For example, say "She is so intelligent" instead of "She is such intelligent".

Using "Such" in Sentences

Like "so", "such" can also be used in a "such...that" structure to show the result of the intensity:

Such + (Adjective) + Noun + That: This structure is similar to the one with "so", but remember, "such" is used with nouns (and sometimes adjectives too).

- Example: "It was such a cold day that we decided to stay indoors."
