keep her from thinking about her distant younger brother Barry Jean's life had changed when she regretfully became estranged from him despite them being inseparable during their childhood Barry lives in a halfway house as a chef but when he goes to the hospital to work he is challenged by the tempting opportunity to revert back to a life of criminality drugs and alcoholism Their mutual friend Brenda is keen to reunite Jean and Barry but has lost touch with them both Will she be able to find them and reunite them or will time run out before they are reconciled Shame failure and disappointment are prominent motifs that are used throughout the text to engage with the reader whilst taking them on an emotional journey As the characters' flaws are slowly revealed the reader is challenged to decide who to support in this moral predicament
