Poets discussed range from Lord Byron to colonial era and early twentieth century poets Francis Adams, David McKee, Wright and Zora Cross, under-represented Australian women poets of World War I, traditionalists and experimentalists including several New Australian Poetry activists of the 1970s and contemporary Australian and New Zealand poets. Writings on poetics address form and tradition, the teaching and reception of poetry and canon formation. The collection is culled from commissioned and occasional contributions to anthologies of practical poetics, journals devoted to literary and cultural history and book reviewing as well as newspaper and small magazine features from the 1980s to the present. The writing reflects Sharkey's poetic practice and pedagogy relating to the teaching of literature, rhetorical analysis, cultural studies and writing in universities, schools and cultural organizations in Australia, New Zealand, China and Germany. It also evidences Sharkey's familiarity with literatures written in English and his wider career in publishing, editing, free lance journalism and the promotion of Australian and New Zealand literature, especially poetry.

Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century David Pierce, 2000. With five Nobel Prize winners, seven Pulitzer Prize winners and two Booker Prize winning novelists, modern Irish writing has contributed something special and permanent to our understanding of the twentieth century. Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century provides a useful, comprehensive and pleasurable introduction to modern Irish literature in a single volume. Organized chronologically by decade, this anthology provides the reader with a unique sense of the development and richness of Irish writing and of the society it reflected. It embraces all forms of writing, not only the major forms of drama, fiction and verse but such material as travel writing, personal memoirs, journalism, interviews and radio plays to offer the reader a complete and wonderfully varied sense of Ireland's contribution to our literary heritage. The African Palimpsest Chantal J. Zabus, 1991. Ghosts in the Attic, Poemosophism Florentin Smarandache. In this booklet the author drops down from the attic a couple of ghosts, a series of characters, mythical events, historical facts, citations, references in a stunning intertextual mixture. As a pretense he takes Lancelot from England and Layla from Iran and makes them fall in love in an Aztec legend depicted in verses. This compositum goes further as the author follows the characters in time and space or in multi dimensions, hacks their emails and eventually eavesdrops on their chats. Full of paradoxism, Layla Lancelot's love affair observed by the author using such unorthodox means is claimed to be the neutrosophic state of love that does not allow the consumption of love still neither denies it nor potentiates it yet does not prevent it The Cambridge Companion to the Australian Novel Nicholas Birns, Louis Klee, 2023-03-02 This book provides a clear lively and accessible guide to the complex histories and vital present of the Australian novel A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English Harry Blamires, 2021-06-23 First published in 1983 A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English is a detailed and comprehensive guide containing over 500 entries on individual writers from countries including Africa Australia Canada the Caribbean India Ireland New Zealand Pakistan Sri Lanka and the UK The book contains substantial articles relating to major novelists poets and dramatists of the age as well as a wealth of information on the work of lesser known writers and the part they have played in cultural history It focuses in detail on the character and quality of the literature itself highlighting what is distinctive in the work of the writers being discussed and providing key biographical and contextual details A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English is ideal for those with an interest in the twentieth century literary scene and the history of literature more broadly White Vanishing Elspeth Tilley, 2012-01-01 The story of the vulnerable white person vanishing without trace into the harsh Australian landscape is a potent and compelling element in multiple genres of mainstream Australian culture It has been sung in Little Boy Lost brought to life on the big screen in Picnic at Hanging Rock immortalized in Henry Lawson's poems of lost tramps and preserved in the history books tales of Leichhardt or Burke and Wills wandering in mad circles A world wide audience has also witnessed the many layered and oddly strident nature of Australian disappearance symbolism in media coverage of contemporary disappearances such as those of Azaria Chamberlain and Peter Falconio White Vanishing offers a revealing and challenging re examination of Australian disappearance mythology exposing the political utility at its core Drawing on wide ranging examples of the white vanishing myth the book provides evidence that disappearance mythology encapsulates some of the most dominant and durable categories at the heart of white Australian culture and that many of those ideas have their origin in colonial mechanisms of inequality and oppression White Vanishing deliberately and perhaps controversially reminds readers that while power is never absolute or irresistible some narrative threads carry a particularly authoritative inheritance of ideas and power relations through time The Stepmother Tongue John Skinner, 1998-09-18 There are numerous twentieth century writers in English who are not technically native speakers of the language and whose relation to it is ambivalent problematic or even hostile by a simple kinship analogy one may often speak of the stepmother tongue Whilst fully aware of the current debates in postcolonial theory John Skinner is also conscious of its sometimes unhelpful complexities and contradictions The focus of this study is thus firmly on the fictional practice of the writers discussed He offers the reader an insight into the diversity and rewards of contemporary anglophone fiction whilst analysing some eighty individual texts A uniquely comprehensive guide the book will be welcomed by students and teachers of postcolonial literature Locating Australian Literary Memory Brigid Magner, 2019-11-22 Locating Australian Literary Memory explores the cultural meanings suffusing local literary commemorations It is orientated around eleven authors Adam Lindsay Gordon Joseph Furphy Henry Handel Richardson Henry Lawson A B Banjo Paterson Nan Chauncy Katharine Susannah Prichard Eleanor Dark P L Travers Kylie Tennant and David Unaipon who have all been celebrated through a range of forms including statues huts trees writers houses and assorted objects Brigid Magner illuminates the social memory residing in these monuments and artefacts which were largely created as bulwarks against forgetting Acknowledging the value of literary memorials and the voluntary labour that enables them she traverses the many contradictions ironies and eccentricities of authorial commemoration in Australia arguing for an expanded repertoire of practices to recognise those who have been hitherto excluded
