Unknowing and the Everyday Seema Golestaneh, 2022-12-26 In Unknowing and the Everyday Seema Golestaneh examines how Sufi mystical experience in Iran shapes contemporary life Central to this process is ma rifat or unknowing the idea that as it is ultimately impossible to fully understand the divine humanity must operate from an engaged awareness that it knows nothing Golestaneh shows that rather than considering ma rifat an obstacle to intellectual engagement Sufis embrace that there will always be that which they do not know From this position they affirm both the limits of human knowledge and the mysteries of the profane world Through ethnographic case studies Golestaneh traces the affective and sensory dimensions of ma rifat in contexts such as the creation of collective Sufi spaces the interpretation of Persian poetry formulations of selfhood and non selfhood and the navigation of the socio material realm By outlining the relationship between ma rifat and religious aesthetic and social life in Iran Golestaneh demonstrates that for Sufis the outer bounds of human thought are the beginning rather than the limit

In Search of the Divine Rana Safvi, 2022-09-21 Sufism called the mystical dimension of Islam is known for its inclusive nature as well as its ethics of love and compassion its devotional music art and architecture In India s syncretic culture Sufism developed a distinct character and harmoniously embraced the Bhakti traditions of North India Rana Safvi s In Search of the Divine delves into the fascinating roots of Sufism with its emphasis on ihsan iman and akhlaq and the impact it continues to have on people from all communities Safvi relies not only on textual sources but also on her own visits to dargahs across the country and the conversations she has with devotees and pirs alike The book evokes in vivid detail the sacred atmosphere she encounters the reverent crowds the strains of qawwali and the fragrance of incense as well as highlights the undeniable yet often forgotten contributions of women in Sufism The resulting text is at once modern and a tribute to the rich and textured past Weaving together fact and popular legend ancient histories and living tradition this unique treatise examines core Sufi beliefs and uncovers why they might offer hope for the future

Making Space Nile Green, 2012-02-16 How could settlement emerge in an early modern world on the move How did the Sufis imprint their influence on the cultural memory of their communities Weaving together investigations of architecture ethnography local history and migration Making Space offers bold new insights into Indian Islamic and comparative early modern history Nile Green explores the tensions between mobility and locality through the ways in which Sufi Islam responded to the cultural demands of moving and settling Central to this process were the shrines rituals and narratives of the saints Tracing how different Muslim communities located their sense of belonging this book shows how Afghan Mughal and Hindustani Muslims constructed new homelands while remembering different places of origin Revival from Below Brannon D. Ingram, 2018-11-21 The Deoband movement a revivalist movement within Sunni Islam that quickly spread from colonial India to Pakistan Afghanistan Bangladesh and even the United Kingdom and South Africa has been poorly understood and sometimes feared Despite being one of the most influential Muslim revivalist movements of the last two centuries Deoband's connections to the Taliban have dominated the attention it has received from scholars and policy makers alike Revival from Below offers an important corrective reorienting our understanding of Deoband around its global reach which has profoundly shaped the movement's history In particular the author tracks the origins of Deoband's controversial critique of Sufism how this critique travelled through Deobandi networks to South Africa as well as the movement's efforts to keep traditionally educated Islamic scholars ulama at the center of Muslim public life The result is a nuanced account of this global religious network that argues we cannot fully understand Deoband without understanding the complex modalities through which it spread beyond South Asia Sufi Institutions Alexandre Papas, 2020-11-30 This volume describes the social and practical aspects of Islamic mysticism Sufism across centuries and geographical regions Its authors seek to transcend ethereal essentialist and spiritualizing approaches to Sufism on the one hand and purely pragmatic and materialistic explanations of its origins and history on the other Covering five topics Sufism's economy social role of Sufis Sufi spaces politics and organization the volume shows that mystics have been active socio religious agents who could skillfully adjust to the conditions of their time and place while also managing to forge an alternative way of living worshiping and thinking Basing themselves on the most recent research on Sufi institutions the contributors to this volume substantially expand our understanding of the vicissitudes of Sufism by paying special attention to its organizational and economic dimensions as well as complex and often ambivalent relations between Sufis and the societies in which they played a wide variety of important and sometimes critical roles Contributors are Mehran Afshari Ismail Fajrie Alatas Semih Ceyhan Rachida Chih Nathalie Clayer David Cook Stéphane A Dudoignon Daphna Ephrat Peyvand Firouzeh Nathan Hofer Hussain Ahmad Khan Catherine Mayeur Jaouen Richard McGregor Ahmet Yaşar Ocak Alexandre Papas Luca Patrizi Paulo G Pinto Adam Sabra Mark Sedgwick Jean Jacques Thibon Knut S Vikør and Neguin Yavari

Indian Sufism since the Seventeenth Century Nile Green, 2006-09-27 Sufism is often regarded as standing mystically aloof from its wider cultural settings By turning this perspective on its head Indian Sufism since the Seventeenth Century reveals the politics and poetry of Indian Sufism through the study of Islamic sainthood in the midst of a cosmopolitan Indian society comprising migrants soldiers litterateurs and princes Placing the mystical traditions of Indian Islam within their cultural contexts this interesting study focuses on the shrines of four Sufi saints in the neglected Deccan region and their changing roles under the rule of the Mughals the Nizams of Hyderabad and after 1948 the Indian nation In particular Green studies the city of Awrangabad examining the vibrant intellectual and cultural history of this city as part of the independent state of Hyderabad He employs a combination of historical texts and anthropological fieldwork which provide a fresh perspective on developments of devotional Islam in South Asia over the past three centuries giving a fuller understanding of Sufism and Muslim saints in South Asia

Journeys of Love Thomas Hodgson, 2025-07-07 An empathetic and eye opening portrait of Muslim migrants in England that debunks many misperceptions about their music and poetry In Journeys of Love ethnomusicologist Thomas Hodgson offers a sensitive corrective to harmful portrayals of immigrants specifically Pakistanis living in England as a self segregating group prohibited from making music a stereotype that has often resulted in violent Islamophobia He argues that in practice these migrants many of whom come from the Mirpur area of Azad Kashmir occupy rich musical worlds full of poetic metaphors that are central to surviving migration and its attendant losses Hodgson shows how Mirpuris in England as well as those who remain in Pakistan carry on traditions of reciting a collection of poetry by the nineteenth century Sufi saint Mian Muhammad Bakhsh translated by Hodgson here as Journeys of Love With its themes of remaining true to one's home the oppressed being saved having patience and keeping faith in God this work has become the story of movement and displacement in its narrative arc as well as through the way it provides spiritual and ethical frameworks for settling in new lands These hidden poetics of migration transform across generations as young Mirpuris develop new expressions of the connections across continents These poetics reveal the connections between Kashmir's rural village life and urban centers abroad offering a sensitive and illuminating portrait of migration and multiculturalism in Britain and beyond Life Stories in Mughal India Shivangini Tandon, 2025-06-27

Situated at the intersections between history and literature the book explores the life stories written in the Mughal period to recover socio cultural developments in the period It focuses on the genre of life stories and looks at the complex interactions between agency and the ruling structure in shaping historical formations The biographical dictionaries explored in this book highlight the significance of the agency of political actors and the strategies through which the aristocrats and the elites reproduced the political system At the same time these texts are also quite helpful in recovering processes through which the ordinary people in routine everyday forms negotiated with and contested the political system Delving into the life narratives preserved in the tazkiras or biographical compendia this book looks at the household as a political formation and positions the aristocratic households as integral to the reproduction of imperial sovereignty The work also delves into the world of emotions and argues for the need to draw linkages between political developments and shifts in emotions and affect This book will be an essential resource for scholars and researchers of history especially early modern history cultural studies literature sociology South Asian history It will also be of interest to those studying gender and political discourse in early modern South Asia Rethinking a Millennium Rajat Datta, 2008 This book is a collection of essays by eminent historians exploring a millennium of India's history between the eighth and the eighteenth century conventionally understood as early medieval and medieval India Though these terms are subjected to critical
