Historical Dictionary of Kenya Robert M. Maxon,Thomas P. Ofcansky,2014-09-09 Kenya has a long and complex history that began thousands of years ago Indeed some archaeologists contend that the country was the cradle of mankind or at the very least one of the places that was home to the earliest hominids In later centuries Kenya's strategic location astride the Indian Ocean and the East African littoral attracted numerous foreign peoples some of the most significant of which have been the Americans Arabs British Chinese French Germans and Portuguese Additionally Africans from throughout the subcontinent have settled in Kenya to escape conflict or political persecution while others wanted an opportunity to begin a new life As a result of being a gateway to the world the country traditionally has been one of the most important business cultural diplomatic and political centers in Africa Although it has maintained this reputation during the post independence period Kenya like most African countries has been plagued by an increasing array of complex economic political and social problems This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Kenya provides a starting point for those interested in any of the phases of Kenya's historical evolution This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Kenya

Modes of British Imperial Control of Africa Onok C. Adyanga, 2011-05-25 This book examines how Great Britain as a colonial power in Africa organized and exercised control at the international and domestic level to advance British interests in Uganda and beyond While this book is by no means an exhaustive study of the various modes of control that took hold in Uganda since its inception as a territorial state up to the period of juridical independence it is hoped that its historiographical contributions to the post colonial dispensation of Uganda will be threefold First it systematically sheds light on the combined influence of racist ideology class and politics in perpetuating informal imperial control in Uganda Second it demonstrates that consolidating informal imperial control has required externalizing the legitimacy of the Ugandan state This suggests that African leaders not supported by external powers may be externally delegitimized and their position made untenable Third it demonstrates that the informal control imposed upon Africans by external powers by removing incentives for internal legitimacy encouraged violations of human rights as African leaders did not need to obtain the consent of their own people in order to remain in power Furthermore it advances the argument that democracy the rule of law and the protection of human rights can be achieved in Africa if leaders enjoy internal legitimacy derived from the people The various modes of control imposed by former masters over colonial and post colonial states were not meant to protect African but imperial interests in Nigeria Nnamdi Elleh,2016-12-08 In 1975 the Nigerian authorities decided to construct a new postcolonial capital called Abuja and together with several internationally renowned architects these military leaders collaborated to build a city for three million inhabitants Founded five years after the Civil War with Biafra which caused around 1 7 million deaths the city was envisaged as a place where justice would reign and where people from different social religious ethnic and political backgrounds would come together in a peaceful manner and work together to develop their country and its economy These were all laudable goals but they ironically mobilized certain forces from around the country in opposition against the Federal Government of Nigeria The international and modernist style architecture and the fact that the government spent tens of billions of dollars constructing this idealized capital ended up causing more strife and conflict For groups like Boko Haram a Nigerian Al Qaida affiliate organization and other smaller ethnic groups seeking to have a say in how the country s oil wealth is spent Abuja symbolized everything in Nigeria they sought to change By examining the creation of the modernist national public spaces of Abuja within a broader historical and global context this book looks at how the successes and the failures of these spaces have affected the citizens of the country and have in fact radicalized individuals with these spaces being scene of some of the most important political events and terrorist targets including bombings and protest rallies Although focusing on Nigeria's capital the study has a wider global implication in that it draws attention to how postcolonial countries that were formed at the turn of the twentieth century are continuously fragmenting and remade by the emergence of new nation states like South Sudan Nigerian Cities Toyin Falola, Steven J. Salm, 2004 The growth of Nigeria's urban population has been phenomenal with Lagos being one of the fastest growing cities in the world Rapid growth also brings problems notably the shortage of social amenities crime and violence Drawing on specific examples from Lagos Abeokuta and Kano among others the book examines various issues on the management of modern Nigerian cities The original analysis on the movement of people and goods improving sanitation and minimising ethnic tension in Nigerian cities over the last century will engage scholars experts and policy makers African Research & Documentation, 1977 The Crown Colonist, 1931
