Historical Dictionary of Kosovo Robert Elsie,2010-11-15 As the seventh and probably last state to arise from the ruins of the former Yugoslavia Kosovo is the newest country in Europe For centuries Kosovo also known as Kosova was part of the Ottoman Empire and for most of the 20th century it was a province of what was once Yugoslavia After the military conflict in 1998 1999 and a period of administration by the United Nations Kosovo declared its independence from Serbia on February 17 2008 Focusing not only on Kosovo's turbulent recent years the second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Kosovo also relates the country's rich culture and long history This is done through a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Kosovo

The Hypertext of HerMe(s) Judy Freya Sibayan,2014-12-19 In this ebook Judy Freya Sibayan reflects on 39 years of her work as an artist curator writer editor of Ctrl P and teacher Inspired by Hélène Cixous the figure of HerMe(s) is invoked for a new kind of artistic autobiography hyperlinked to the internet and a practice evident in major works like Scapular Gallery and Museum of Mental Objects which developed from her development of a distinctive form of institutional critique

Artificial Hells Claire Bishop, 2012-07-24 The award winning highly acclaimed Artificial Hells is the first historical and theoretical overview of socially engaged participatory art known in the US as social practice In recent decades the art gallery and the museum have become a place for participatory art where an audience is encouraged to take part in the artwork This has been heralded as a revolutionary practise that can promote new emancipatory social relations What was it is really In this fully updated edition Claire Bishop follows the trajectory of twentieth century art and examines key moments in the development of a participatory aesthetic This itinerary takes in Futurism and Dada the Situationist International Happenings in Eastern Europe Argentina and Paris the 1970s Community Arts Movement and the Artists Placement Group It concludes with a discussion of long term educational projects by contemporary artists such as Thomas Hirschhorn Tania Bruguera Pawel Althamer and Paul Chan Bishop challenges the political and aesthetic ambitions of participatory art this practise She not only scrutinizes the emancipatory claims but also provides an alternative to the ethical rather than artistic criteria invited by such artworks In response Artificial Hells calls for a less prescriptive approach to art and politics and for more compelling troubling and bolder forms of participatory art and criticism

Performance art in Eastern Europe since 1960 Amy Bryzgel, 2017-03-17 This volume presents the first comprehensive academic study of the history and development of performance art in the former communist countries of Central Eastern and South Eastern Europe since the 1960s Covering 21 countries and more than 250 artists this text demonstrates the manner in which performance art in the region developed concurrently with the genre in the West highlighting the unique contributions of Eastern European artists The discussions are based on primary source material interviews with the artists themselves It offers a comparative study of the genre of performance art in countries and cities across the region examining the manner in which artists addressed issues such as the body gender politics and identity and institutional critique

Europe Thomas M. Wilson, 2023-11-30 This two volume encyclopedia profiles the contemporary culture and society of every country in Europe Each country receives a chapter encompassing such topics as religion lifestyle and leisure standard of living cuisine gender roles relationships dress music visual arts and architecture This authoritative and comprehensive encyclopedia provides readers with richly detailed entries on the 45 nations that comprise modern Europe Each country profile looks at elements of contemporary life related to family and work including popular pastimes customs beliefs and attitudes Students can make cross cultural comparisons for instance a student could compare social customs in Denmark with those in Norway compare Greece s cuisine with that of Italy and contrast the architecture of Paris with Amsterdam and Barcelona Culture and society are changing in each region and nation of Europe due to many political and economic forces both inside and outside of each nation s borders This encyclopedia considers many of the transformations connected to globalization as well as traditions that still hold strong to provide a complete assessment of the processes that make European societies and cultures distinctive
