Muslims and Others in Early Islamic Society Robert Hoyland,2021-03-24 The interaction between Muslims and the other religious denominations of the Middle East in the period 620 1020 is the subject of this volume This is arguably the single most important issue in the history of the early Islamic Middle East since the Muslims were initially a minority in the lands that they had conquered and so had to reach some modus vivendi with the various religious communities in their realm Fifteen articles by leading scholars shed light on this process from a number of different perspectives historical conceptual legal social and theological An introduction both gives an overview and examines possibilities for future research The period under study is demarcated at one end by the Prophet Muhammed d 632 who as the Qur an tells us had to deal with Jews Christians and polytheists At the other end lies the great legal political thinker Manardi d ca 1020 by whose time the Middle East had become substantially Islamicised

Muslim Transnationalism in Modern China Hale Eroğlu,2025-04-01 In the early twentieth century as the multiethnic Qing empire transformed into the Republican Chinese nation state Chinese Muslims faced new challenges confronting competing visions of nation building religion secularism democracy and modernity In this book Hale Ero lu explores how a group of key figures navigated this complex landscape offering a transnational intellectual history of Chinese Muslim thought Muslim Transnationalism in Modern China provides a portrait of underrecognized reformists who aimed to turn Muslim subjects into active Chinese citizens and revive true Islam in order to aid China s development and promote peace Ero lu examines reformists engagement with local and transnational Muslim currents spanning orthodox heterodox reformist secular and socialist movements from Egypt Britain India Turkey and the Soviet Union She reveals their varied strategies and highlights how they adapted global ideas to address local challenges such as the policies of the Nationalist and Communist parties the antireligion discourse of the New Culture Movement and the anti Islam rhetoric of Christian missionaries Drawing from Republican and early Communist era journals Chinese translations of Islamic sources and memoirs and travelogues this book offers a nuanced understanding of Chinese speaking Muslim intellectuals efforts to balance local and global influences in shaping their community s future

Refugee Status in Islam Arafat Madi Shoukri,2010-11-30 What are the views principles and regulations of the Islamic tradition concerning refugee status Are there any similarities between the Islamic tradition relating to the laws of aman safe conduct and the 1951 Geneva Convention relating to the status of refugees In this book Arafat Shoukri delves into fifteen centuries of Arab and Islamic history examining hundreds of ancient sources to establish Islam s position on refugees This is the first examination of the 1951 Geneva Convention on refugees from an Islamic perspective In adopting this approach Shoukri is able to compare and contrast the principles of international law with those of the Islamic tradition

Accommodating Muslims under Common Law Salim Farrar,Ghena Krayem,2016-07-15 The book explores the relationship between Muslims the Common Law and Shar ah post 9 11 The book looks at the accommodation of Shar ah Law within Western Common Law legal traditions and the role of the judiciary in particular in drawing boundaries for secular democratic states with Muslim populations who want resolutions to conflicts that also comply with the dictates of their faith Salim Farrar and Ghena Krayem consider the question of recognition of Shar ah by looking at how the flexibilities that exists in both the Common Law and Shar ah provide unexplored avenues for navigation and accommodation The issue is explored in a comparative context across several jurisdictions and case law is examined in the contexts of family law business and crime from selected jurisdictions with significant Muslim minority populations including Australia Canada England and Wales and the United States The book examines how Muslims and the broader community have framed their claims for recognition against a backdrop of terrorism fears and how Common Law judiciaries have responded within their constitutional and statutory confines and also within the contemporary contexts of demands for equality neutrality and universal human rights Acknowledging the inherent pragmatism flexibility and values of the Common Law the authors argue that the controversial issue of accommodation of Shar ah is not necessarily one that requires the establishment of a separate and parallel legal system

Tolerance and Coercion in Islam Yohanan Friedmann, 2003-06-30 Since the beginning of its history Islam has encountered other religious communities both in Arabia and in the territories conquered during its expansion Muslims faced other religions from the position of a ruling power and were therefore able to determine the nature of that relationship in accordance with their world view and beliefs Yohanan Friedmann s original and erudite study examines questions of religious tolerance as they appear in the Qur an and in the prophetic tradition and analyses the principle that Islam is exalted above all religions discussing the ways in which this principle was reflected in various legal pronouncements The book also considers the various interpretations of the Qur anic verse according to which No compulsion is there in religion noting that despite the apparent meaning of this verse Islamic law allowed the practice of religious coercion against Manichaeans and Arab idolaters as well as against women and children in certain circumstances
