Snakes And Their Homes:

Snakes and Their Homes Deborah Chase Gibson,1999-01 Presents an overview of different kinds of snakes and how and where they make their homes Field Guide to the Snakes of Eswatini Rupert Wilkey,Sarah Nann,2025-09-30 Field Guide to the Snakes of Eswatini offers a complete account of all 63 snake species recorded in the Kingdom of Eswatini formerly known as Swaziland Each species is illustrated with stunning photographs over 300 images in all The species are described in detail including size colouration habits and diet Species are presented in colour coded groups based on the severity of their bite and venom highly venomous venomous but not dangerous and non venomous This system enables the reader to quickly assess the treatment required following a bite and to seek appropriate first aid Each species is contained in a double page spread making it easy for the reader to see all information on that particular snake and also facilitating easy comparison by flicking between species Dedicated sections also consider similar looking species side by side while there is also a wide ranging discussion of snake behaviour Eswatini s habitats and a host of other fascinating and useful information The authors each bring nearly 50 years of fieldwork and research experience together in this groundbreaking guide It will appeal to the experienced herpetologist as well as amateur naturalists hikers and tourists 101 Different Ways to Build Homes and Pens for Your Animals Randy LaTour,2011 Animals need their own space and nowhere is this more apparent than for those who own multiple animals When not given their own private space to be alone in many animals especially dogs and livestock will become overly territorial marking space and fighting with other animals or even humans for a place to call their own Yet many owners put off or overlook the need for building homes for their animals because they think it might be too hard or time consuming That could not be further from the truth however and this book aims to prove just that Written for every pet and livestock owner who has sighed or groaned at the prospect of building a home for their animals this book shows you 101 different ways you can cut cost and time effectively build a viable home for your animals You will learn in this book how to create homes from scratch for dozens of different kinds of animals First and foremost you will learn how to assess the needs of your animals according to breed and personality from indoor domesticated pets to outdoor livestock You will learn what features these homes need to match your animals according to size feeding habits gender whether you have more than one and whether they will be bred or not You will learn which building materials are best for which breeds homes and how these materials can be purchased and used by yourself at home Experts ranging from dog and cat breeders to small farmers have been interviewed for this book to learn more about their experiences with animal homes and they have provided a number of insights into how these homes can and should be built More than 101 different plans and methods for home building will be laid out for you in detailed methods that allow you to effectively start building these homes and seeing to the specific needs of every animal in your home or on your farm Snakes and Their Ways Charles Howard Curran,Carl Kauffeld,1937 Snakes of the American West Charles E. Shaw,Sheldon Campbell,1974

Snakes in American Culture Jesse C. Donahue, Conor Shaw-Draves, 2019-02-11 The literature on snakes is manifold but overwhelmingly centered on the natural sciences Little has been published about them in the fields of popular culture or the history of medicine Focusing primarily on American culture and history from the 1800s this study draws on a wide range of sources including newspaper archives medical journals and archives from the Smithsonian Institute to examine the complex relationship between snakes and humans Rattlesnakes, Their Habits, Life Histories, and Influence on Mankind Laurence Monroe Klauber, Karen Harvey McClung, 1982 Their habits life histories and influence on mankind Snakes Patricia Whitehouse, 2004 What are snakes Snakes Sonia Hernandez-Divers, 2010 Covers the responsibilities and rewards of keeping a pet snake including how to care for it what to feed it and the equipment needed The Snakes of South Africa Frederick William Fitzsimons, 1912
