Familiar and Foreign Manijeh Mannani, Veronica Thompson, 2015-09-30 The current political climate of confrontation between Islamist regimes and Western governments has resulted in the proliferation of essentialist perceptions of Iran and Iranians in the West Such perceptions do not reflect the complex evolution of Iranian identity that occurred in the years following the Constitutional Revolution 1906-11 and the anti imperialist Islamic Revolution of 1979 Despite the Iranian government's determined pursuance of anti Western policies and strict conformity to religious principles the film and literature of Iran reflect the clash between a nostalgic pride in Persian tradition and an apparent infatuation with a more Eurocentric modernity In Familiar and Foreign Mannani and Thompson set out to explore the tensions surrounding the ongoing formulation of Iranian identity by bringing together essays on poetry novels memoir and films These include both canonical and less widely theorized texts as well as works of literature written in English by authors living in diaspora Challenging neocolonialist stereotypes these critical excursions into Iranian literature and film reveal the limitations of collective identity as it has been configured within and outside of Iran Through the examination of works by among others the iconic female poet Forugh Farrokhzad the expatriate author Goli Taraghi the controversial memoirist Azar Nafisi and the graphic novelist Marjane Satrapi author of Persepolis this volume engages with the complex and contested discourses of religion patriarchy and politics that are the contemporary product of Iran's long and revolutionary history Persian
