

The image features a close-up of a black fly, possibly a snow fly, resting on a surface of snow and ice. The fly is positioned on the left side of the frame, with its long, dark body and thin legs clearly visible against the white, crystalline background. On the right side, there is a large, stylized blue star graphic. The star has a white outline and is surrounded by a ring of smaller, light blue star-like shapes. Inside the central blue star, the text "Bugs in Snow?!" is written in a white, serif font. The overall scene suggests a winter or high-altitude environment where insects might be found in or on snow.
