The Long Walk Home Raymond J. Castellani,2017-02-02 The Long Walk Home will most likely be the last book I write I am eighty three years old this book is important to me it goes over to a degree what has been said in my previous books The End Was A Beginning the first the second The Silent Voice in much more detail it is threaded with the never ending presence of loneliness but more significantly it brings forth the Four Absolutes Honesty Purity Unselfishness Love which were given to me in 1986 I have talked about these principles in my previous books I made clear that if these principles were incorporated in society at hand the world would change in an instant this I believe is the power of these four words the society that exists at present the persistence of selfishness self centeredness permeated with dishonesty beyond reproach the distortion of purity the use of the word love as a panacea to cover the vile of discontent that exists in the world as is lived in every crime every murder every twisted thought every lie every selfish act every thought of hate would be reduced to the pleasantries of memory I cannot predict where society will rest seventy years from now 2016 I do know that in 1927 the world population was two billion 1960 three billion 2011 seven billion projection 2083 ten billion will make up our society if the culture is not changed the present will be a reality for the future this may be a morbid statement it is a true statement for sure society is doing nothing to change the silhouette as is known the simple life is but a dream of realities taken from the books well read by masters of the past what is our destiny

Colonial Systems of Control Viviane Saleh-Hanna,2008-04-18 A pioneering book on prisons in West Africa Colonial Systems of Control Criminal Justice in Nigeria is the first comprehensive presentation of life inside a West African prison Chapters by prisoners inside KiriKiri maximum security prison in Lagos Nigeria are published alongside chapters by scholars and activists While prisoners document the daily realities and struggles of life inside a Nigerian prison scholar and human rights activist Viviane Saleh Hanna provides historical political and academic contexts and analyses of the penal system in Nigeria The European penal models and institutions imported to Nigeria during colonialism are exposed as intrinsically incoherent with the community based conflict resolution principles of most African social structures and justice models This book presents the realities of imprisonment in Nigeria while contextualizing the colonial legacies that have resulted in the inhumane brutalities that are endured on a daily basis Published in English
