Work of the Public Roads Administration United States. Bureau of Public Roads,1947 Memoirs of Nikita

Khrushchev: Commissar, 1918-1945 Nikita Sergeevich Khrushchev,Serge_ Khrushchev,2004 Nikita Khrushchev's proclamation from the floor of the United Nations that we will bury you is one of the most chilling and memorable moments in the history of the Cold War but from the Cuban Missile Crisis to his criticism of the Soviet ruling structure late in his career the motivation for Khrushchev's actions wasn't always clear Many Americans regarded him as a monster while in the USSR he was viewed at various times as either hero or traitor But what was he really like and what did he really think Readers of Khrushchev's memoirs will now be able to answer these questions for themselves and will discover that what Khrushchev really said at the UN was we will bury colonialism This is the first volume of three in the only complete and fully reliable version of the memoirs available in English In this volume Khrushchev recounts how he became politically active as a young worker in Ukraine how he climbed the ladder of power under Stalin to occupy leading positions in Ukraine and then Moscow and how as a military commissar he experienced the war against the Nazi invaders He vividly portrays life in Stalin's inner circle and among the generals who commanded the Soviet armies Khrushchev's sincere reflections upon his own thoughts and feelings add to the value of this unique personal and historical document Included among the Appendixes is Sergei Khrushchev's account of how the memoirs were created and smuggled abroad during his father's retirement Civil Functions, Department of the Army Appropriations United States. Kahn in Rome and Venice

Elisabetta Barizza, 2021-07-22 This book examines the idea of organism in the work of Louis I Kahn from the turning point of Rome to the project for Venice It presents an original interpretation of the work of Kahn during one of the most fruitful periods of his career when he was working on a particular design method based on an entirely novel way of interacting with the past Beginning with a meticulous documentation and analysis of Kahn s experiences in the twenty years from 1930 to 1950 the book sheds new light on the relationship between Kahn s work and the modern movement The arguments are supported by case studies including that of the Palazzo dei Congressi in Venice based on Kahn s words like his lessons in Venice at IUA International University of Art in 1971 and others as the Trenton Bath House the Salk Institute La Jolla the Kimbell Museum Fort Worth the Yale Gallery and the Mellon Center for British Art New Haven and more Unlike much of the by now well established literature on Kahn s work Louis I Kahn in Rome and Venice suggests that the basic premise of Kahn s invention is the idea of spatial constructive organism which explains how he created forms that were inextricably anchored in the past without imitating any one kind of ancient architecture The main objective of the book is to explain Kahn s methodology to architects and students showing how he was able to design an architectural object with the characteristics of the best designed objects organisms in which each part contributes with the whole to creating something made of indivisible parts
