Social And Historical Change An Islamic Perspective:

Social and Historical Change Murtazá Muṭahharī, 1986 Islam and the Everyday World Sohrab Behdad, Farhad Nomani, 2006-11-22 This is a new examination of how Shari'a law affects public policy both theoretically and in practice across a wide range of public policy areas including for example human rights and family law The process by which public policy is decided through elections debates political processes and political discourse has an additional dimension in the Islamic world This is because Shari'a divine law has a great deal to say on many mundane matters of everyday life and must be taken into account in matters of public policy In addition matters are complicated further by the fact that there are differing interpretations of the Shari'a and how it should be applied to contemporary social issues Written by leading experts in their field this is the first comprehensive single volume analysis of Islam and public policy in the English language and offers further understanding of Islam and its wider social and political implications Islam, Modernity, and the Human Sciences A. Zaidi, 2011-05-09 Ali Zaidi discloses a largely unnoticed dialogue between Muslim and Western social thought on the search for meaning and transcendence in the human sciences This disclosure is accomplished by a comparative reading of Muslim debates on secular knowledge on the one hand and of Western debates on the putative death of metaphysics in the human sciences on the other hand The analysis is grounded in dialogical hermeneutics that is a hermeneutic approach to texts and cultural traditions that draws upon the work of Hans Georg Gadamer and upon the insights of inter religious dialogue Information Sources on Islamic Banking and Economics S. Nazim Ali, Naseem N. Ali, 1994-01-10 Islamic banking and economics IBE is a fast growing subject of vital interest in both East and West as Muslims change their attitudes towards investments and find ways to invest their funds according to the Islamic faith Along with the rapid developments in Islamic banking there has been a concomitant increase in the quantity of relevant IBE material Globalization and the Muslim World Birgit Schaebler, Leif Stenberg, 2004-06-01 Written by scholars from a range of disciplines concerned with the Middle East and Islam history religious studies anthropology sociology political science and covering the Muslim world extensively from Malaysia Turkey Sudan Egypt and Israel Palestine to Muslim communities in Europe and the United States this important contribution to the debate on globalization sets a standard in dealing with this pervasive force in the field of Islamic and Middle Eastern studies Islam in World Cultures R. Michael Feener, 2004-10-26 Islam in World Cultures analyzes differences in Islamic culture and practice by looking not simply at matters of doctrine but also at how Islam interacts with local cultures Contemporary treatments of Islam focus on the Middle East they treat the beliefs and people of that region as representing all of Islam At most they emphasize the differences between Muslim groups Sunni vs Shia for instance while overlooking the even greater differences that result from region specific cultural and political pressures Islam in World Cultures gathers the work of ten eminent scholars each of whom has expertise in the Muslim culture of a particular country or geographical area Individual chapters explore contemporary developments in the Islamic experience in Turkey

Iran Pakistan Central Asia China Indonesia South Africa Ethiopia and the United States This broad treatment provides an introduction to the full range of issues relating to Islam in the context of globalization

Theology of Discontent Hamid Dabashi, 2017-07-28 Scores of books and articles have been published addressing one or another aspect of the Islamic Revolution in Iran Missing from this body of scholarship however has been a comprehensive analysis of the intellectual and ideological cornerstones of one of the most dramatic revolutions in our time In this remarkable volume Hamid Dabashi brings together in a sustained and engagingly written narrative the leading revolutionaries who have shaped the ideological disposition of this cataclysmic event Dabashi has spent over ten years studying the writings in their original Persian and Arabic of the most influential Iranian clerics and thinkers Examining the revolutionary sentiments and ideas of such figures as Jalal Al e Ahmad Ali Sharifati Morteza Motahhari Sayyad Abolhasan Bani Sadr and finally the Ayatollah Khomeini the work also analyzes the larger historical and theoretical implications of any construction of the Islamic Ideology Carefully located in the social and intellectual context of the four decades preceding the 1979 revolution Theology of Discontent is the definitive treatment of the ideological foundations of the Islamic Revolution with particular attention to the larger more enduring ramifications of this revolution for radical Islamic revivalism in the entire Muslim world This volume will be of interest to Islamicists Middle East historians and specialists as well as scholars and students of liberation theologies comparative religious revolutions and mass collective behavior Bruce Lawrence of Duke University calls this volume a superb and unprecedented study In brilliant figural strokes he arrays EuroAmerican sociological theory as the crucial backdrop of a deeper understanding of contemporary Iranian history Princeton Readings in Islamist Thought Roxanne L. Euben, Muhammad Qasim Zaman, 2021-06-08 The most authoritative anthology of Islamist texts This anthology of key primary texts provides an unmatched introduction to Islamist political thought from the early twentieth century to the present and serves as an invaluable guide through the storm of polemic fear and confusion that swirls around Islamism today Roxanne Euben and Muhammad Qasim Zaman gather a broad selection of texts from influential Islamist thinkers and place these figures and their writings in their multifaceted political and historical contexts The selections presented here in English translation include writings of Ayatollah Khomeini Usama bin Laden Muslim Brotherhood founder Hasan al Banna and Moroccan Islamist leader Nadia Yassine as well as the Hamas charter an interview with a Taliban commander and the final testament of 9 11 hijacker Muhammad Atta Illuminating the content and political appeal of Islamist thought this anthology brings into sharp relief the commonalities in Islamist arguments about gender democracy and violence but it also reveals significant political and theological disagreements among thinkers too often grouped together and dismissed as extremists or terrorists No other anthology better illustrates the diversity of Islamist thought the complexity of its intellectual and political contexts or the variety of ways in which it relates to other intellectual and religious trends in the contemporary Muslim world
