Social Class And Stratification Society Now:

Social Class and Stratification Peter Saunders, 2006-10-19 The questions raised by a study of class and inequality are important but often complex This book succeeds in making them understandable without oversimplifying and its breadth originality and easy style will appeal to a wide readership Peter Saunders covers theories of social class as well as evidence on class inequalities in the contemporary period He analyses why class inequalities exist whether they are inevitable whether they are unjust and how they are changing The analysis is comprehensive and up to date and includes information on how the distribution of wealth and income and social mobility chances have been changing during the Thatcher years It also explores how the class structure is being affected by developments such as the spread of privatization and individual shareholdings the rise of the yuppies and the emergence of an underclass On the theoretical side Professor Saunders gives equal weight to marxist social democratic and neo liberal perspectives on class and inequality and writers as diverse as Karl Marx John Rawls and Friedrich Hayek all receive serious and balanced consideration

Understanding the Dynamics of Global Inequality Alexander Lenger, Florian Schumacher, 2014-12-03 Despite the fact that the globalization process tends to reinforce existing inequality structures and generate new areas of inequality on multiple levels systematic analyses on this very important field remain scarce Hence this book approaches the complex question of inequality not only from different regional perspectives covering Africa Asia Europe Latin and Northern America but also from different disciplinary perspectives namely cultural anthropology economics ethnology geography international relations sociology and political sciences The contributions are subdivided into three essential fields of research Part I analyzes the socio economic dimension of global exclusion highlighting in particular the impacts of internationalization and globalization processes on national social structures against the background of theoretical concepts of social inequality Part II addresses the political dimension of global inequalities Since the decline of the Soviet Union new regional powers like Brazil China India and South Africa have emerged creating power shifts in international relations that are the primary focus of the second part Lastly Part III examines the structural and transnational dimension of inequality patterns which can be concretized in the rise of globalized national elites and the emergence of multinational networks that transcend the geographical and imaginative borders of nation states
