Social Science Applications In Asian Agroforestry:

Social Science Applications in Asian Agroforestry William R. Burch, 1991 An Introduction to Agroforestry P. K. R. Nair, 1993-07-31 This college level textbook summarizes the state of current knowledge in the rapidly expanding field of agroforestry. The book is organized into 25 chapters in six sections, reviews the developments in agroforestry during the past 15 years, and describes the accomplishments in the application of biophysical plant and soil related and socioeconomic sciences to agroforestry. Although the major focus of the book is on the tropics where the practice and potential of agroforestry are particularly promising, the developments in temperate zone agroforestry are also discussed. This text is recommended for students, teachers, and researchers in agroforestry, farming systems, and tropical land use. The Literature of Forestry and Agroforestry Peter McDonald, J. P. Lassoie, 1996 Discusses the evolution of forestry and agroforestry and presents the core literature in these fields, covering both traditional and emerging areas. Topics include changes in forest science in the 20th century, the development of agroforestry literature, the role of professional societies, and the US. Applications of Systems Approaches at the Farm and Regional Levels P.S. Teng, M.J. Kropff, H.F.M. ten Berge, J.B. Dent, F.P. Lansigan, H.H. Van Laar, 2012-12-06 Systems approaches for agricultural development are needed to determine rational strategies for the role of agriculture in national development. Mathematical models and computer simulation provide objective tools for applying science to determine and evaluate options for resource management at field, farm, and regional scales. However, these tools would not be fully utilizable without incorporating social and economic dimensions into their application. The second international symposium, Systems Approaches for Agricultural Development, held in Los Baños 6-8 December 1995, fostered this link between the bio-physical sciences and the social sciences in the choice of keynote papers and oral presentations, a selection of which is included in this book. The book's contents further reflect how systems approaches have definitely moved beyond the research mode into the application mode. The large number and high quality of interdisciplinary research projects reported from different parts of the globe to determine land use options that will meet multiple goals and yet sustain natural resource bases is a key indicator of this coming of age. At the farm level, where trade-off decisions between processes and products, commodities, feature strongly, much progress is also evident in the development of systems-based tools for decision making. This book will be of particular interest to all agricultural scientists and planners as well as students interested in multidisciplinary and holistic approaches for agricultural development. A.I.D. Research and Development Abstracts, 1992 Report of the International Expert Consultation on Non-Wood Forest Products Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1995-01-01 Asia Kevin Hillstrom, Laurie Collier Hillstrom, 2003-06-23 A concise yet thorough overview of the environmental issues, problems, and controversies facing the world's largest and most populous continent, Asia. Asia tackles the tough issues, the complex problems, and the political controversies surrounding the environment of this vast landmass. This volume encompasses everything from economics, land use, energy, and transportation.

to air pollution rivers and lakes oceans and species and habitat protection In Malaysia unchecked discharges of industrial waste and human sewage led the government to label 42 of its rivers officially dead According to some estimates Southeast Asia alone accounts for more than half of the world s total transport of sediment to the oceans In the Philippines the Chico River dam project which would have subjected 100 000 tribespeople to relocation was canceled when the World Bank withdrew funding after fierce resistance from the indigenous people This fascinating book offers a comprehensive look at how the most populated continent on earth contends with its complicated environment Agroforestry Theory and Practices A.J. Raj,S.B. Lal,2014-01-01 This textbook is one of the finest books on agroforestry that offers a global review of the approaches tools and technologies research innovations and real world practices in agroforestry The book offers a comprehensive guide to basic principles techniques and applications integrative strategies economic and environmental concerns and future trends in agroforestry in different regions of the world It will help all scientists students professors farmers foresters decision makers and politicians who wish to build a safe land use system for food energy and better environment for future generations This textbook will enormously benefit the students for their preparation of competitive exams like UPSC Civil Services UPSC Indian Forest Service ICAR ARS Scientist NET Exam ICFRE Forestry Scientist Exam State Public Service Commission Exams and University Entrance Exam for admission to M Sc and Ph D programmes
