Social Protection in Southern Africa Leila Patel, 2017-07-05 A new generation of innovative social protection strategies is emerging in southern Africa Although cash transfers are most prevalent some country strategies include combinations of interventions such as food livelihood inputs and support asset building public works and social services The strategies vary in their commitment to social rights their institutional and funding arrangements the reach scope and design of the programmes and the behavioural conditions attached to grant access The proliferation of national social protection in the Global South has been widely supported by governments international agencies and non governmental organisations NGOs This book offers researchers and policymakers much to think about when considering the rapid growth of social protection in southern Africa the challenges this presents and the opportunities it offers for social development and economic growth Hence the book is a contribution to scholarship and policy debate on how to solve intractable social development problems in Africa and elsewhere This book was originally published as a special issue of Development Southern Africa

Poverty, Income and Social Protection Richard Hofer, James Midgley, 2013-10-31 This book provides insights into the way social protection policy is being redefined as a result of the new commitment by governments around the world to use these programs to reduce poverty The case studies presented show how innovations in social protection have emerged in different countries They also discuss various aspects of social protection that will be of interest to readers While some of the case studies are primarily descriptive and seek to document recent trends in different countries they also address important social policy issues Others are particularly topical because they provide useful updates on recent social protection innovations Countries discussed include Brazil Britain Chile China Indonesia South Africa and the United States This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Policy Practice

Redefining Diversity and Dynamics of Natural Resources Management in Asia, Volume 1 Ganesh Shivakoti,Ujjwal Pradhan,Helmi Helmi,2016-09-01 Redefining Diversity and Dynamics of Natural Resources Management in Asia Volumes 1 4 brings together scientific research and policy issues across various topographical area in Asia to provide a comprehensive overview of the issues facing the region Sustainable Natural Resources Management in Dynamic Southeast Asia Volume 1 pulls together regional experts in the field to look specifically at sustainability issues across the region to see what has been implemented what the impacts have been and what other options are available In the race to be a developed region many Southeast Asian countries have foregone natural resources through haphazard use As a result the people are faced with numerous environmental challenges particularly deforestation and forest degradation biodiversity loss and ecosystem degradation reduction in soil quality and decreases in the quantity of available water Community based forest management is the involvement of local communities in the protection conservation and management of public forests to prevent degradation through sustainable practices while still responding to the basic social and economic needs of local populations When the people who depend on forest resources for their livelihoods are jointly responsible for managing and protecting them they tend to do so in a more sustainable manner by focusing on the long term benefits rather than the immediate short term gains However when tenure rights are weak unclear or insecure or offer limited benefits people are incited in extracting more immediate benefits resulting in suboptimal forest management and the reduction of carbon stocks Features case studies that cover issues such as rising levels of deforestation forest degradation regional food security ecosystem degradation biodiversity loss conflicts over natural resource use water management issues and impacts on local communities Includes contributions from local researchers who are dealing with these issues first hand and on a daily basis Includes a comparative review on REDD implementation in different communities Focuses on sustainability issues across the region

Social Welfare for a Global Era James Midgley,2016-02-03 Written by internationally renowned author and scholar James Midgley Social Welfare for a Global Era provides a comprehensive framework for examining social welfare from a global perspective Drawing on a large body of literature and his own extensive knowledge of the field Dr Midgley offers students scholars and practitioners an up to date account of the complex ways social well being is enhanced in the global era including the major welfare institutions that provide a cultural context for social welfare policy and practice

Social Welfare Development

in East Asia K. Tang, 2000-10-03 Comparative social policy has long neglected welfare development in Asia Not much is known about social welfare in the economically successful East Asian tigers Hong Kong Korea Singapore and Taiwan They are late starters in social welfare but each has its own trajectory of welfare development Despite the presence of extensive social welfare they have shied away from western style welfare states The presence of strong developmental states and their development ethos explain in large part the underdevelopment of state welfare The Political Economy of Divergent Welfare States in the Global South Elias Phaahla, 2024-02-20 This study traces the welfare regimes of Mauritius and South Africa from the early 20th century focusing on the historical circumstances that gave rise to the dominance of state funded old age pensions within their respective welfare frameworks It highlights intersections between powerful business interests the state and social forces that sowed the seeds of social entitlements Due to different mobilisation efforts of these social actors both countries have spawned welfare regimes of different persuasions Mauritius has maintained its long standing traditions as a social democracy stretching back to the late 1950s while South Africa continues relentlessly in pursuit of a liberal welfare state a journey it has treaded since 1928 when the old age pension laws first came into effect While unravelling the innermost workings of welfare state development in Mauritius and South Africa it also probes the present political and economic circumstances that have kept these two welfare regimes resolutely unchanged Against this backdrop it draws parallels between current welfare outcomes and those of old as they continue to chart their way into the future

The Crisis of Welfare in East Asia James Lee, Kam-wah Chan, 2010-06-23 The Crisis of Welfare in East Asia adopts a unique and critical perspective on contemporary social welfare policies in East Asia This edited volume reflects on current welfare theories and challenges the dominant productivist ideology that overemphasizes the influence of work and family James Lee and Kam Wah Chan bring together authors from different social policy domains to provide an updated assessment of inadequacies and limitations in current social policies as well as the problematic theories guiding them The authors demystify the so called East Asian Welfare Model and reengage themselves in the identification of an appropriate welfare ideology which includes a selective integration of social policy and economic development The Crisis of Welfare in East Asia is a dynamic and enlightening read that will interest students of public policy and those interested in welfare capitalism

Embedding Global Markets John G. Ruggie, 2016-12-05 John Ruggie introduced the concept of embedded liberalism in a 1982 article that has become one of the most frequently cited sources in the study of international political economy The concept was intended to convey the manner by which capitalist countries learned to combine the efficiency of markets with the broader values of the community that socially sustainable markets themselves require in order to survive and thrive Examining the concept and the institutionalized practice of embedded liberalism this collection provides a survey of the macro patterns in industrialized countries Leading scholars combine to demonstrate the benefits of embedded liberalism in practice as well as its gradual erosion at national levels and to analyze public opinion They provide a better understanding of what embedded liberalism means why it matters and how to reconstitute it in the context of the global economy The contributors contextualize the current challenge historically and theoretically so that students scholars and policy makers alike are reminded of what is at stake and what is required The Political Economy of Africa Vishnu Padayachee,2010-06-10 The Political Economy of Africa addresses the real possibilities for African development in the coming decades when seen in the light of the continent s economic performance over the last half century This involves an effort to emancipate our thinking from the grip of western economic models that have often ignored Africa s diversity in their rush to peddle simple nostrums of dubious merit The book addresses the seemingly intractable economic problems of the African continent and traces their origins It also brings out the instances of successful economic change and the possibilities for economic revival and renewal As well as surveying the variety of contemporary situations the text will provide readers with a firm grasp of the historical background to the topic It explores issues such as employment and poverty social policy and security structural adjustment programs and neo liberal globalization majority rule and democratization taxation and resource mobilization It contains a selection of country specific case studies from a range of international contributors many of whom have lived and worked in Africa The book will be of particular interest to higher level students in political economy development studies area studies Africa and economics in general Middle Classes in Africa Lena Kroeker,David O'Kane,Tabea Scharrer,2018-02-19 This volume challenges the concept of the new African middle class with new theoretical and empirical insights into the changing lives in Sub Saharan Africa Diverse middle classes are on the rise but models of class based on experiences from other regions of the world cannot be easily transferred to the African continent Empirical contributions drawn from a diverse range of contexts address both African histories of class formation and the political roles of the continent s middle classes and also examine the important interdependencies that cut across inter generational urban rural and class divides This thought provoking book argues emphatically for a revision of common notions of the middle class and for the inclusion of insights from the South into the global debate on class Middle Classes in Africa will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines as well as NGOs and policy makers with an interest in African societies

The Political Economy of Poverty, Equity and Growth: A Comparative Study Deepak Lal,H. Myint,Hla Myint,1998-10-08 This wide ranging and innovative book synthesizes the findings of a major international study of the political economy of poverty equity and growth It represents an ambitious interdisciplinary attempt to identify patterns in the interplay of initial conditions institutions interests and ideas which can help to explain the different growth and poverty alleviation outcomes in the Third World Social Policies for the Elderly in the Third World Martin Tracy,1991-01-30 This book introduces a problem solving model to cross national studies of social programs for the elderly in economically developing nations the Third World a term that is used here only as a designation of unspecified relatively lower levels of industrial and economic development Current models of cross national analysis tend to focus on theory testing and description they fail to provide the practical information that indigenous policymakers need to decide whether another nation's policy program or provision is appropriate to their own country      On Freedom Eileen Barker, 2021-12-24 The London School of Economics and Political Science has embraced the full range of the social sciences and its related disciplines Contributors to this book were invited to write on the subject of freedom      Population ageing and international development Peter Lloyd-Sherlock, 2010-01-20 Over the next 40 years the number of people aged 60 in the world many of whom live in developing regions will grow by 11.4 billion What will old age be like for them This original book provides an analysis of links between development population ageing and older people challenging some widely held misconceptions It highlights the complexity of international experiences and argues that the effects of population ageing on development are influenced by policy choices The book will be of interest to a range of academic disciplines including economics gerontology social policy and development studies as well as policy makers and practitioners concerned with developing countries
