Foster, 2001 Contributors to this volume offer insights from the discipline of history about the nature of empathy and the necessity of examining perspectives on the past On the basis of recent classroom research they suggest tested guides to more robust teaching The contributors insist that with experienced history and social studies teachers students can learn many historical details and with the use of empathy develop deepened and textured interpretations of the history that they study Cultural Dynamics in a Globalized World Melani Budianta, Manneke Budiman, Abidin Kusno, Mikihiro Moriyama, 2017-12-14 The book contains essays on current issues in arts and humanities in which peoples and cultures compete as well as collaborate in globalizing the world while maintaining their uniqueness as viewed from cross and interdisciplinary perspectives The book covers areas such as literature cultural studies archaeology philosophy history language studies information and literacy studies and area studies Asia and the Pacific are the particular regions that the conference focuses on as they have become new centers of knowledge production in arts and humanities and in the future seem to be able to grow significantly as a major contributor of culture science and arts to the globalized world The book will help shed light on what arts and humanities scholars in Asia and the Pacific have done in terms of research and knowledge development as well as the new frontiers of research that have been explored and opening up which can connect the two regions with the rest of the globe

In Search of Wonderful Ideas Mary Kay Delaney, Susan Jean Mayer, 2021 Drawing on the work of Eleanor Duckworth this volume examines Critical Exploration in the Classroom CEC a learning teaching research practice that positions teachers as researchers of their students sense making and learners as theorizers and investigators By integrating CEC into their teacher education classrooms chapter authors have found that they can reliably unsettle their teacher candidates understandings about the nature of teaching and learning and recenter their attention on the intellectual originality and creativity of all young people In this way CEC provides valuable tools in the work of creating more equitable and democratic classrooms Such tools are needed in a broader environment that overvalues instrumental approaches to achieving specified learning outcomes Readers will find practices that empower and sustain the deep intellectual engagement of all learners Integrating classroom narratives and other forms of documentation this resource illustrates the kinds of profound changes in understanding that have occurred for teacher candidates as a result of working with CEC Book Features Opens both the teacher educator and teacher candidates to new ways of teaching learning and being in classrooms Demonstrates how the practice works to counter deficit thinking by revealing students brilliance Uses narratives and other forms of documentation to characterize the potential of CEC within a diverse array of teacher education classrooms Portrays the many ways in which

CEC has been integrated into different disciplinary and institutional settings illustrating the common intellectual and interpersonal dynamics at work Chapter authors all studied Critical Exploration in the Classroom CEC with its originator Eleanor Duckworth Contributors Elizabeth Cavicchi Eleanor Duckworth Fiona Hughes McDonnell Keri Gelenian Houman Harouni Yeh Hsueh Susan Rauchwerk Lisa Schneier William Shorr Bonnie Hao Kuo Tai Hitler's French Literary Afterlives, 1945-2017 Manuel Bragança, 2019-09-11 This book analyses the successive appearances of Adolf Hitler in French fiction between 1945 and 2017 It discusses why unlike what has been observed in the US and in the UK it has proven problematic for French novelists to write about Hitler in their numerous fictional explorations of the Second World War It examines the literary and ethical challenges of including historical characters such as Hitler in fiction and demonstrates how these challenges evolved over time as memories of the Second World War also evolved in France jhopok Ego-histories of France and the Second World War Manuel Bragança, Fransiska Louwagie, 2018-03-21 This volume presents the intellectual autobiographies of fourteen leading scholars in the fields of history literature film and cultural studies who have dedicated a considerable part of their career to researching the history and memories of France during the Second World War Based in five different countries Margaret Atack Marc Dambre Laurent Douzou Hilary Footitt Robert Gildea Richard J Golsan Bertram M Gordon Christopher Lloyd Colin Nettelbeck Denis Peschanski Ren e Poznanski Henry Rousso Peter Tame and Susan Rubin Suleiman have played a crucial role in shaping and reshaping what has become a thought provoking field of research This volume which also includes an interview with historian Robert O Paxton clarifies the rationales and driving forces behind their work and thus behind our current understanding of one of the darkest and most vividly remembered pages of history in contemporary France Job One 2.0 Peter M. Magolda, Jill Ellen Carnaghi, 2014-04-15 In this second edition of Job One editors Peter M Magolda and Jill Ellen Carnaghi place new professionals stories center stage The book focuses on narratives written by new professionals about their introduction and transitions into Student Affairs work These stories document the joys and angst felt as new professionals prepare to transition from graduate school to work search for their first Student Affairs position assimilate campus norms formulate a professional identity satisfy supervisors expectations mediate cultural conflicts and remain true to their personal and professional values This book is a useful resource inviting new professionals supervisors and faculty to think differently about the on going education and needs of new professionals while offering a new perspective for optimizing new professionals experiences Co published ACPA College Student Educators International

Growing Readers Kathy Collins, 2004 Primary grade teachers face an important challenge teaching children how to read while enabling them to build good habits so they fall in love with reading Many teachers find the independent reading workshop to be the component of reading instruction that meets this challenge because it makes it possible to teach the reading skills and strategies children need and guides them toward independence intention and joy as readers In Growing Readers Kathy Collins helps teachers plan for independent reading workshops in their own classrooms She describes the structure of the independent reading workshop and other components of a balanced literacy program that work together to ensure young students grow into strong well rounded readers Kathy outlines a sequence of possible units of study for a yearlong curriculum Chapters are devoted to the individual units of study and include a sample curriculum as well as examples of mini lessons and reading conferences There are also four Getting Ready sections that suggest some behind the scenes work teachers can do to prepare for the units Topics explored in these units include print and comprehension strategies reading in genres such as poetry and nonfiction connecting in school reading and out of school reading developing the strategies and habits of lifelong readers A series of planning sheets and management tips are presented throughout to help ensure smooth implementation We want our students to learn to read and we want them to love to read To do this we need to lay a foundation on which children build rich and purposeful reading lives that extend beyond the school day The ideas found in Growing Readers create the kind of primary classrooms where that happens Sanctuary School Chandler Patton Miranda, 2025-07-28 A compassionate examination of a topic of urgent concern in US education Doing Real World Research in Sports Studies Andy Smith, Ivan Waddington, 2013-10-23 Traditional research methods textbooks tend to present an idealized and simplistic picture of the research process This ground breaking text however features leading international sport researchers explaining how they actually carried out their real life research projects highlighting the practical day to day problems false starts and setbacks that are a normal part of the research process This book focuses on ten pieces of research that have made a distinctive and valuable contribution to the study of sport For each one the author of that research explains how the project was conducted and the issues that they faced In addition each piece of research has a commentary from a leading sport scholar outlining why it is regarded as being an important contribution to the discipline of sport studies and how that research can inform studies being carried out today Contributors to the book describe how in their own real life research projects they initially conceptualized and defined their research projects secured funding and or sponsorship from relevant bodies handled enforced changes to the research plans confronted overcame obstacles presented by outside bodies managed inter personal emotional relationships in the research encounter managed possible threats to their personal safety or physical integrity managed good luck bad luck and serendipitous findings dealt with favourable and hostile media reaction to research findings Doing Real World Research in Sport Studies enables students and researchers to develop a more realistic understanding of what the research process actually involves It charts the development of key research projects in sport and should be essential reading for any sport research methods course Library of Congress Magazine ,2012
