Not Just a Passing Phase George A. Appleby, Jeane W. Anastas, 1998 This comprehensive textbook helps social workers understand and meet the needs of lesbian, gay and bisexual people. It outlines approaches to a range of everyday problems associated with issues of oppression, family acceptance, shame, identity development, HIV disease and addiction. The first of the book's three sections provides an overview of what it means to be gay, lesbian or bisexual and locates the text within the ecological model of social work on individual, interpersonal and institutional levels of intervention. This section includes definitions of sexual orientation, forms of heterosexism and homophobia and issues of community among gay, lesbian and bisexual people. The second section covers life transitions including childhood, adolescence and late life as well as sexual relationships, parenting and life in the workplace. The last part covers the special issues and challenges of mental health, substance abuse, violence, both gay bashing and domestic violence and HIV disease. The final chapter pulls together the practice concepts introduced in the book and provides a blueprint for knowledge development and dissemination in the field.
