

B. THE ROLE OF SOCIAL STUDIES

Social studies develops the key values and attitudes, knowledge and understanding, and skills and processes necessary for students to become active and responsible citizens, engaged in the democratic process and aware of their capacity to effect change in their communities, society and world.

C. VALUES AND ATTITUDES

Social studies provides learning opportunities for students to:

- Value the diversity, respect the dignity and support the equality of all human beings
- Demonstrate social compassion, fairness and justice
- Appreciate and respect how multiple perspectives, including

- Understand the historical and contemporary realities
- Understand the multi ethnic and intercultural makeup
- Understand the challenges and opportunities that immigration
- Understand how social cohesion can be achieved in a pluralistic society

PLURALISTIC AND DIVERSITY

Pluralistic refers to a society or group that is composed of many different ethnic, cultural, linguistic, and religious groups. In a pluralistic society, these groups coexist and interact, but they maintain their distinct identities and traditions. Diversity, on the other hand, refers to the presence of differences within a group or society. This can include differences in ethnicity, culture, language, religion, and more. Diversity is a broader concept that encompasses the various ways in which people differ from one another. Both pluralism and diversity are important for creating a rich and inclusive society where all individuals are valued and respected.

INCLUSIVE AND EXCLUSIVE

Inclusive refers to a society or group that actively seeks to include and embrace all individuals, regardless of their background, identity, or abilities. It is a mindset and a practice that values the contributions of everyone and works to create a sense of belonging for all. Exclusive, on the other hand, refers to a society or group that excludes or marginalizes certain individuals or groups based on their characteristics. It is a mindset and a practice that creates barriers and prevents full participation. Inclusive societies are more resilient and innovative, as they harness the strengths of all their members. Exclusive societies, on the other hand, are more prone to conflict and social inequality. Promoting inclusivity and combating exclusivity are essential for building a just and equitable world.
