The Psychology of Social Networking Vol.1 Giuseppe Riva, Brenda K. Wiederhold, Pietro Cipresso, 2015-01-01 Using a novel approach to consider the available literature and research this book focuses on the psychology of social media based on the assumption that the experience of being in a social media has an impact on both our identity and social relationships In order to be online an individual has to create an online presence they have to share information about themselves online This online self is presented in different ways with diverse goals and aims in order to engage in different social media activities and to achieve desired outcomes Whilst this may not be a real physical presence that physicality is becoming increasingly replicated through photos video and ever evolving ways of defining and describing the self online Moreover individuals are using both PC based and mobile based social media as well as increasingly making use of photo and video editing tools to carefully craft and manipulate their online self This book therefore explores current debates in Cyberpsychology drawing on the most up to date theories and research to explore four main aspects of the social media experience communication identity presence and relationships In doing so it considers the interplay of different areas of psychological research with current technological and security insight into how individuals create manipulate and maintain their online identity and relationships The social media are therefore at the core of every chapter with the common thread throughout being the very unique approach to considering diverse and varied online behaviours that may not have been thus far considered from this perspective It covers a broad range of both positive and negative behaviours that have now become integrated into the daily lives of many westernised country s Internet users giving it an appeal to both scholarly and industry readers alike

Cutting-Edge Technologies and Social Media Use in Higher Education Benson, Vladlena, 2014-02-28 This book brings together research on the multi faceted nature and overarching impact of social technologies on the main opportunities and challenges facing today s post secondary classrooms from issues of social capital formation to student support and recruitment

The Marketing of Terrorism. Analysing the Use of Social Media by ISIS Lisa Wiechert, 2017-06-02 Social media has played a central role in the digital era for almost a century influencing almost all aspects of life The use of social media in warfare is threatening not only one country but the whole global community is a recent development The famous speech by Abu Muhammad al Adnani on social media inspired the bloody month of Ramadan in 2016 and showed the deadly power of social media inspired attacks and what the Islamic State is capable of achieving Although the terrorist group has lost territory over the last few weeks of combat both in Syria and Iraq and is on the edge of losing their main capital Mosul IS still remains a hybrid threat Consisting of military powers and an unmatched affinity of using social media as a cyber war weapon IS will continue to be a severe danger to the global community This book aims to foster a deeper understanding of the use of social media for recruiting efforts by the so called Islamic State IS and to analyse its propaganda methods in order to develop possible countermeasures A special focus will be put on the method of recruitment of young Western foreign fighters These individuals are the easiest to recruit for ISIS and pose the greatest risk to the global community especially in regards to home grown terrorism and so called lone wolf attacks Since this area of research is very new and quickly evolving the field still needs extensive research It is difficult to analyse the use of social media content by the Islamic State due to limited information access and flow encryption propaganda verification and inconsistency The Islamic State is a military threat on the battleground as well as a potential cyber threat for the international community Despite these challenging circumstances this book will provide a new theoretical model based on the marketing model of a customer journey in connection with the main principles of storytelling Ultimately this research work will try to provide experts with a new and modern approach of analysis as a base for possible counter measures to
