William Emilsen, Patricia Curthoys, 2025-04-25 Often theological colleges are the site of tension between the aspirations of the overall institution of the church and the goals of the particular college itself While they are usually the first called upon to solve the numerous problems facing the modern church yet just as likely they are criticized for being too academic too out of touch with contemporary society and too expensive A fair reading of the ten essays in Things That Matter will refute or at the very least question these criticisms The authors of this inspiring collection although far from uncritical clearly show that since 1999 when United Theological College the Uniting Church's premier college in New South Wales became part of Charles Sturt University's School of Theology there have been great benefits for students faculty the church and the broader community Hawaii Nei Victoria Nalani Kneubuhl, 2002-08-31 Hawaii Nei brings together three plays by one of Hawaii's

Think of a Garden and Other Plays John Kneubuhl, 1997-04-01 By his own reckoning John Kneubuhl was the world's greatest Swiss Welsh Samoan playwright The son of a Samoan mother and an American father Kneubuhl's multicultural heritage produced a distinctive artistic vision that formed the basis of his most powerful dramatic work Born and raised in Samoa Kneubuhl attended school in Honolulu and studied under Thornton Wilder at Yale Returning to Hawaii in the mid 1940s Kneubuhl won acclaim as a playwright with the Honolulu Community Theater then moved on to Los Angeles to write for television Twenty years later he was back in Samoa lecturing on Polynesian history and culture and writing plays including the trilogy offered here Unlike much of Kneubuhl's earlier work these plays are touchingly personal in their exploration of alienation and cultural identity Think of a Garden the first play of the trilogy and the last written before the playwright's death in 1992 has been called the most Samoan of Kneubuhl's plays a candid look at the writer's bicultural upbringing that artfully weaves together family memory history and mysticism Think of a Garden makes the work of one of the Pacific's preeminent playwrights available for the first time to a wide audience of theatre enthusiasts literature specialists and others interested in Pacific themes

Night is a Sharkskin Drum Haunani-Kay Trask, 2002-07-31 Night Is a Sharkskin Drum is a lyrical evocation of Hawaii by a Native poet whose ancestral land has been scarred by tourism the American military and urbanization Grounded in the ancient grandeur and beauty of Hawaii this collection is a haunted and haunting love song for a beloved homeland under assault

Losing Ground Jione Havea, 2022-07-07 The Ruth narrative opens with a climate crisis a famine pushed a family to migrate and addresses some of the critical concerns for refugees food security home land inheritance Around those concerns Losing Ground Reading Ruth in the Pacific offers a collection of bible studies from the Pacific that interweave the climate pandemic with the interests and wisdoms of Pasifika natives Weaving Ruth's story together with the stories of those who as Pacific islanders on the frontline of a climate catastrophe are forced to leave their homes because of rising sea levels Pasifika bible scholar Jione Havea offers a powerful and potent contribution which refuses to pretend scripture can be read separately from the every day realities of a climate emergency

Jonah: An Earth Bible Commentary Jione Havea, 2020-04-16 Jione Havea analyses the Book of Jonah through the lens of climate change using this present situation to reconsider the significance of Jonah for contemporary struggles and contexts and tapping into traditional practices of commentary to draw out the meaning of the biblical text Havea takes Jonah

3 10 as a starting point in which God repents and rethinks decides not to destroy taking this as a challenge and an opportunity for biblical scholars to reflect on the realities of climate change Havea builds on this opportunity in two ways first by reading Jonah forward giving special attention to the orientation of the narrative toward the sea and Nineveh and then backward highlighting the significance of sea and is land lives to the flow of the narrative Second by looking at the other figures in the narrative rather than focusing on the narrator s obsession with Jonah and his God Havea reminds readers that the fish plant worm and other beasts are also crucial in this narrative and considers how this can change our reading of the text

Pacific Well-Being Jione Havea,2024-03-29 This book makes space 1 for Pasifika contributions to academic conversations on critical topics and 2 for influencing the conversations to account for and thus reflect Pasifika ways and modes The critical topic that runs through the chapters is well being and the contributors were located at the time of writing in Pasifika Aotearoa Fiji Kioa Kiribati Samoa Tonga and Tuvalu but there are many more Pasifika voices and concerns than are represented in this work Nonetheless the ways in which this work seeks to influence the conversations on well being reflect the intersectional modes of thinking that native Pasifika Islanders share The essays are placed into three intersecting clusters well being of bodies and is lands well being of traditions and theologies and well being of imaginations and worldviews The rationale for this arrangement is that the well being of Pasifika requires attention to the present bodies and islands to the past traditions and theologies and to the future imaginations and worldviews The chapters address Pasifika questions and concerns and they are placed so that the conversations they spark can take place free of the traps of Western theories and disciplines with Pasifika accents and rhythms

Colonial Contexts and Postcolonial Theologies M. Brett.J. Havea,2014-12-17 Colonial Contexts and Postcolonial Theology focuses on what postcolonial theologies look like in colonial contexts particularly in dialogue with the First Nations Peoples in Australia and the Asia Pacific The contributors have roots in the Asia Pacific but the struggles theologies and concerns they address are shared across the seas
