Whose History? Grant Rodwell, 2013 Somebody once quipped that any work of Australian historical fiction is a burning fuse travelling over decades through Australian culture and society In some manner every newly published Australian historical novel is connected to what it has preceded Each work belongs to a proud history Through multiple examples Grant Rodwell encourages readers to see how a work of historical fiction has evolved Thus under various themes WHOSE HISTORY examines the traditions in Australian historical fiction and ponders how Australian historical novels can engage teachers and student teachers WHOSE HISTORY aims to illustrate how historical novels and their related genres may be used as an engaging teacher learning strategy for student teachers in pre service teacher education courses It does not argue all teaching of History curriculum in pre service units should be based on the use of historical novels as a stimulus nor does it argue for a particular percentage of the use of historical novels in such courses It simply seeks to argue the case for this particular approach leaving the extent of the use of historical novels used in History curriculum units to the professional expertise of the lecturers responsible for the units

Multimodal Semiotics Len Unsworth, 2011-10-27 This volume presents an overview of new developments and applications of social semiotic theory Pioneered by M A K Halliday social semiotic theory sees meaning as created through the interaction of texts including writing images sound and space within a given context Divided into five sections the contributors use social semiotic theory to analyse a range of contexts including the classroom the museum and cinema The case studies show the range and scope of this method of analysis and include the school curriculum literacy print media online resources film and advertising Multimodal Semiotics will be of interest to academics researching social semiotic theory systemic functional linguistics and applied linguistics

Lethal Intersections Patricia Hill Collins, 2023-10-09 School shootings police misconduct and sexual assault where people are injured and die dominate the news What are the connections between such incidents of violence and extreme harm In this new book world renowned sociologist Patricia Hill Collins explores how violence differentially affects people according to their class sexuality nationality and ethnicity These invisible workings of overlapping power relations give rise to what she terms lethal intersections where multiple forms of oppression converge to catalyze a set of violent practices that fall more heavily on particular groups Drawing on a rich tapestry of cases Collins challenges readers to reflect on what counts as violence today and what can be done about it Resisting violence offers a common thread that weaves together disparate antiviolence projects across the world When parents of murdered children organize against gun violence when Black citizens march against the excessive use of police force in their neighborhoods and when women and girls report sexual abuse by employers coaches and community leaders the ideas and actions of ordinary people lay a foundation for new ways of thinking about and combating violence Through its ground breaking analysis Lethal Intersections aims to stimulate debate about violence as one of the most pressing social problems of our times Also available as an audiobook

The Oxford Handbook of Law and Anthropology Marie-Claire Foblets, Mark Goodale, Maria Sapignoli, Olaf Zenker, 2022-04-01 The Oxford Handbook of Law and Anthropology is a ground breaking collection of essays that provides an original and internationally framed conception of the historical theoretical and ethnographic interconnections of law and anthropology Each of the chapters in the Handbook provides a survey of the current state of scholarly debate and an argument about the future direction of research in this dynamic and interdisciplinary field The structure of the Handbook is animated by an overarching collective narrative about how law and anthropology have and should relate to each other as intersecting domains of inquiry that address such fundamental questions as dispute resolution normative ordering social organization and legal political and social identity The need for such a comprehensive project has become even more pressing as lawyers and anthropologists work together in an ever increasing number of areas including immigration and asylum processes international justice forums cultural heritage certification and monitoring and the writing of new national constitutions among many others The Handbook takes critical stock of these various points of intersection in order to identify and conceptualize the most promising areas of innovation and sociolegal relevance as well as to acknowledge the points of tension open questions and areas for future development

Lessons in Environmental Justice Michael Mascarenhas, 2020-07-30 Lessons in Environmental Justice provides an entry point to the field by bringing together the works of individuals who are creating a new and vibrant wave of environmental justice scholarship methodology and activism The 18 essays in this collection explore a wide range of controversies and debates from the U S and other societies An important theme throughout the book is how vulnerable and marginalized populations the incarcerated undocumented workers rural populations racial and ethnic minorities bear a disproportionate share of environmental risks Each reading concludes with a suggested assignment that helps student explore the topic independently and deepen their understanding of the issues raised 8 SOSE Alive 2 is the second component of the Jacaranda Middle Years Project to be released. The SOSE Alive series is targeted at junior secondary students. The interactive learning package includes high interest Geography, History and Commerce material to engage and challenge young adolescents, launching pads for SOSE students to build from their own knowledge to new areas of understanding, opportunities for students to extend thinking and explore independent learning opportunities. Remember, Understand, Communicate, Investigate, Create and Connect activities engage different types of learners. Technology delivered through a highly interactive CD ROM and Web site. The middle years school years 5-9 occur at a time when people are going through the greatest physical and personal development of the human life cycle. Children in this age group are seeking independence and are curious and adventurous. They seek interaction with adults and learn best through interactive activities rather than by listening. They are empowered by technology and use it with skill in their recreational and educational pursuits. What makes this program unique? Materials developed through the Jacaranda Middle Years Project provide active learning opportunities for middle years students through high interest material to engage, surprise and challenge students, opportunities for students to build on prior knowledge and choices for students to explore independent learning opportunities, a wide range of activities to engage different learners and build understanding, learning through technology to utilise the capabilities of multimedia and exploit adolescents' curious and adventurous nature.

Water Katie Meehan, Naho Mirumachi, Alex Loftus, Majed Akhter, 2023-02-13. Discover the hydrosocial cycle and the impact of power, knowledge and scarcity on water rights and use through this engaging and student friendly textbook. In Water: A Critical Introduction, a team of distinguished researchers delivers an expert examination of our most pressing water related challenges, arguing that flows of water are shaped by social practices and geometries of power. Combining first hand research and headline case studies, the authors reveal the hydrosocial relations often hidden in mainstream accounts of water, delving into current issues like water scarcity, floods, global water governance, legal conflicts, human rights, potable water, provision, health, the water-food-energy nexus and much more. Spanning five centuries, this comprehensive volume reflects on how imperial expansion has shaped hydrosocial relations in and between Europe, Asia, Africa and the Americas, how water demand has changed over time and how this change impacted lifestyle. As the first major text to synthesize critical water research in both local and global perspectives, this book is anchored by clear and compelling arguments, the four planks and supported by the authors' original research and up to date synthesis of the latest critical research on major water problems. It also includes maps, illustrations and additional learning materials to be used by educators. Readers will find a lively and thorough introduction that explains why a critical approach is necessary to fully understand our current water challenges, with a focus on the skeptical superhero. A global approach to key debates in water issues including large dams, privatization, transboundary conflicts, agriculture and irrigation, water and sanitation, provision, human rights, governance dilemmas and the Sustainable Development Goals. Comprehensive explorations of the roles played by expert knowledge, global capital, climate change and justice struggles in the hydrosocial cycle Critical theoretical perspectives that integrate environmental social sciences feminist critique and a broadly defined political economy with the specificities of water resources Fulsome treatments of water governance science and management including the origins and implications of neoliberal approaches to the privatization commodification and financialization of water An accessible text that invites the reader on a critical journey Water A Critical Introduction is a key text for advanced high school undergraduate and graduate students who want a keener understanding of trends in environmental management political ecology and water governance science and engineering Written with an interdisciplinary audience in mind this book will benefit students taking courses in environmental studies environmental law geopolitics international studies human geography hydrology engineering environmental economics and related disciplines Clark's Horse Review ,1900 SOSE History Worksheets for Multiple Intelligences Denis Young,Maggy Saldais,Jo Marveggio,2004 YEARS 7 10 SOSE History Worksheets for Multiple Intelligences provides photocopiable master worksheets developed to enhance the teaching of Studies of Society and Environment for Middle Years students The worksheets put the fun back into learning for students of all abilities and interests by allowing them to participate in real life learning that engages and stimulates the whole brain All multiple intelligences are covered verbal linguistic logical mathematical visual spatial intrapersonal interpersonal bodily kinaesthetic musical rhythmic naturalist These worksheets are a perfect companion to SOSE Alive History 1 and 2 A New Dictionary of the English Language Charles Richardson,1837 APAIS, Australian Public Affairs Information Service ,1997 Vol for 1963 includes section Current Australian serials a subject list Great Pages of Michigan History from the Detroit Free Press Bill McGraw,1987 The penny cyclopædia [ed. by G.
