British Film Editors Roy Perkins,Martin Stollery,2019-07-25 Most of the Directors I ve worked with needed someone to talk to who is deep inside the heart of the movie Mick Audsley Film Editor Film editing is understood by the industry to be one of the most crucial contributions to film making World class British editors such as Antony Gibbs and Anne Coates have received recognition of their importance in Hollywood and experienced British Editors have important roles in a surprising number of major American movies This book attempts to explain this mot elusive of roles by allowing editors to describe in their own words what they do and to bring them into the critical and public spotlight It is the most comprehensive survey of its kind to date and is based upon interviews with many distinguished editors who have worked on films as diverse as Blade Runner and Carry on Up the Khyber Die Hard 2 and Blow Up American Beauty and Performance The British Film Editor also provides a detailed history of editing together with extensive filmographies Film Editing Roger Crittenden,1981

Writing, Directing, and Producing Documentary Films and Digital Videos Alan Rosenthal,Ned Eckhardt,2015-12-23 In a new edition of this popular guidebook filmmakers Alan Rosenthal and Ned Eckhardt show readers how to utilize the latest innovations in equipment technologies and production techniques for success in the digital web based world of documentary film All twenty four chapters of the volume have been revised to reflect the latest advances in documentary filmmaking

Rosenthal and Eckhardt discuss the myriad ways in which technological changes have impacted the creation process of documentary films including how these evolving technologies both complicate and enrich filmmaking today The book provides crucial insights for the filmmaker from the film's conception to distribution of the finished film Topics include creating dynamic proposals writing narration and navigating the murky world of contracts Also included are many practical tips for first time filmmakers To provide context and to illustrate techniques Rosenthal and Eckhardt reference more than one hundred documentaries in detail A new appendix Using the Web and Social Media to Prepare for Your Career guides filmmakers through the process of leveraging social media and crowdsourcing for success in filmmaking fund raising and promotion A day to day field manual packed with invaluable lessons this volume is essential reading for both novice and experienced documentary filmmakers

The Hollywood Renaissance Peter Krämer, Yannis Tzioumakis, 2018-06-28 In December 1967 Time magazine put Bonnie and Clyde on its cover and proudly declared that Hollywood cinema was undergoing a renaissance For the next few years a wide range of formally and thematically challenging films were produced at the very centre of the American film industry often but by no means always combining success at the box office with huge critical acclaim both then and later This collection brings together acknowledged experts on American cinema to examine thirteen key films from the years 1966 to 1974 starting with Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf a major studio release which was in effect exempted from Hollywood's Production Code and thus helped to liberate American filmmaking from self censorship Long standing taboos to do with sex violence race relations drugs politics religion and much else could now be broken often in conjunction with extensive stylistic experimentation Whereas most previous scholarship has examined these developments through the prism of auteurism with its tight focus on film directors and their oeuvres the contributors to this collection also carefully examine production histories and processes In doing so they pay particular attention to the economic underpinnings and collaborative nature of filmmaking the influence of European art cinema as well as of exploitation experimental and underground films and the connections between cinema and other media notably publishing music and theatre Several chapters show how the innovations of the Hollywood Renaissance relate to further changes in American cinema from the mid 1970s onwards

Selected Takes Vincent LoBrutto, 1991-06-30 Interviews with 21 prominent feature film editors highlight this long overdue look at the role of film editors the importance of their work and the nature of their craft Organized to provide historical continuity and to trace professional collaborations among the subjects Selected Takes features editors whose credits include such diverse films as Ben Hur The French Connection The Godfather and E T Each chapter includes a brief introduction to the artist background information a filmography of feature length works and personal recollections of specific films producers and directors as well as helpful comments on editing techniques A glossary of terms commonly used in film editing and pertinent references found in the interviews complement the work Film students scholars and educators as well as film industry professionals and moviegoers will find Selected Takes both entertaining and instructive
