That Certain Feeling:

"Here" Jerry C. Cooper, 2018-04-12 What began in the 1880s when former students gathered to live over again their college days became in the 1940s the sacred tradition of current and former students congregating to read aloud a roll call honoring deceased Aggies This tradition is Muster an enshrined and enduring legacy of Texas A M University and a solemn symbol of togetherness as evidenced by the more than 300 Musters held in locations worldwide every April 21 Muster is how the Aggie Spirit comprising every Aggie who has ever lived is remembered and celebrated In Here The Muster Speeches at Texas A M University Jerry Cullum Cooper presents the 72 keynote addresses delivered on the university's campus in College Station to date The restoration of these speeches proved challenging as many were hidden in archives and newspaper fragments and others on phonograph recordings Within these speeches are the commanding voices of military heroes such as Dwight D Eisenhower and James Earl Rudder and the stirring words of political leaders including former Texas governor Allan Shivers and Aggie trailblazers like Frederick D McClure the university's first African American student body president Together these voices represent the Aggie Spirit giving us historical snapshots and perspectives of the university the state and the country spanning two centuries Most importantly they continue a hallowed tradition that honors those who have gone before and inspires those who remain Whether a reference for future speechwriters or a unique look into university history Here The Muster Speeches at Texas A M University is a celebrated and necessary addition to every Aggie collection

Lyrics on Several Occasions Ira Gershwin, 1997 One of the most distinguished lyric writers of his time Ira Gershwin wrote for his brother George as well as Jerome Kern Kurt Weill Harold Arlen and others Limelight presents a selection of stage and screen lyrics written for sundry situations and now arranged in arbitrary categories to which have been added many informative annotations and disquisitions on their why and wherefore their whom for their how and matters associative Gershwin's comments witty and irreverent and his anecdotes about the making of many favorites are invariably interesting and frequently surprising Chicago Tribune

The George Gershwin Reader Robert Wyatt, John Andrew Johnson, 2007 A collection of articles biographical reminiscences reviews musical analyses and letters relating to the life and music of George Gershwin

The Sheet Music of George Gershwin Thomas Inglis, Janice Grower, 2007 Feelings of Being Matthew Ratcliffe, 2008-06-27 Feelings of Being is the first ever account of the nature role and variety of existential feelings in psychiatric illness and in everyday life There is a great deal of current philosophical and scientific interest in emotional feelings However many of the feelings that people struggle to express in their everyday lives do not appear on standard lists of emotions For example there are feelings of unreality surreality unfamiliarity estrangement heightened existence isolation emptiness belonging significance insignificance and the list goes on Ratcliffe refers to such feelings as existential because they comprise a changeable sense of being part of a world In this book Ratcliffe argues that existential feelings form a distinctive group by virtue of three characteristics they are bodily feelings they constitute ways of relating to the world as a whole and they are responsible for our sense of reality He explains how something can be a bodily feeling and at the same time a sense of reality and belonging He then explores the role of altered feeling in psychiatric illness showing how an account of existential feeling can help us to understand experiential changes that occur in a range of conditions including depression circumscribed delusions depersonalisation and schizophrenia The book also addresses the contribution made by existential feelings to religious experience and to philosophical thought 20+ New Thought. Sensationality William Clark, 2006-10 If the contents of this publication were easy to understand it would be a much shorter book It's easy to wonder why being in love with someone or living in fear is so different from liking or being afraid of one thing or another Differences arise because what we like for example is definable but who we love isn't We assume that all words are definable but love isn't and neither is faith appreciation passion or a host of other words which relate to love In truth we can't define the sensation of fear sin or temptation either Why is it that we give such importance to words which can't be defined and why is it that many of our words including mind soul and God escape definition when we're certain that we know what they mean It's only by appreciating certain words that an understanding is achieved Our relationship with God the Father Christ the Son and the Holy Spirit are explored Not in a theological context but a sensational one not so different from a sixth sense perspective

Contents of this book also include considerations of anger addiction homosexuality pain management and much more An attempt is made to tie up all these seemingly diverse subjects into one tightly knit package
