Congress. House, 1943 Service? Learning to Advance Social Justice in a Time of Radical Inequality Alan S. Tinkler, Barri E. Tinkler, Virginia M. Jagla, Jean R. Strait, 2015-12-01 When considering inequality one goal for educators is to enhance critical engagement to allow learners an opportunity to participate in an inquiry process that advances democracy Service learning pedagogy offers an opportunity to advance engaged learning opportunities within higher education This is particularly important given the power dynamics that are endemic within conversations about education including the conversations around the Common Core charter schools and the privatization of education Critical inquiry is central to the ethos of service learning pedagogy a pedagogy that is built upon community partner participation and active reflection Within higher education service learning offers an important opportunity to enhance practice within the community allowing students to engage stakeholders and youth which is particularly important given the dramatic inequalities that are endemic in today s society New Educational Philosophy Bhagirathi Sahu,2002

Active Learning: Theoretical Perspectives, Empirical Studies and Design Profiles Robert Cassidy,Elizabeth S. Charles,James D. Slotta,Nathaniel Lasry,2019-07-11 This book represents the emerging efforts of a growing international network of researchers and practitioners to promote the development and uptake of evidence based pedagogies in higher education at something a level approaching large scale impact By offering a communication venue that attracts and enhances much needed partnerships among practitioners and researchers in pedagogical innovation we aim to change the conversation and focus on how we work and learn together i e extending the implementation and knowledge of co design methods In this first edition of our Research Topic on Active Learning we highlight two of the three types of publications we wish to promote First are studies aimed at understanding the pedagogical designs developed by practitioners in their own practices by bringing to bear the theoretical lenses developed and tested in the education research community These types of studies constitute the practice pull that we see as a necessary counterbalance to knowledge push in a more productive pedagogical innovation ecosystem based on research practitioner partnerships Second are studies empirically examining the implementations of evidence based designs in naturalistic settings and under naturalistic conditions Interestingly the teams conducting these studies are already exemplars of partnerships between researchers and practitioners who are uniquely positioned as in between straddling the two worlds As a result these publications represent both the rigours of research and the pragmatism of reflective practice In forthcoming editions we will add to this collection a third type of publication design profiles These will present practitioner developed pedagogical designs at varying levels of abstraction to be held to scrutiny amongst practitioners instructional designers and researchers alike We hope by bringing these types of studies together in an open access format that we may contribute to the development of new forms of practitioner researcher interactions that promote co design in pedagogical innovation Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2003 United States. Reauthorization of the Higher Education Act and Related Measures United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Postsecondary Education,1979 Sharing Sadhana Victoria Bailey,2012-07-12 A daily personal yoga practice or sadhana is carried out by yogis and yoginis throughout the world every day Within western culture our knowledge of yoga and yoga practices has been shaped by lessons and insights provided and shared by well known yoga teachers and yoga therapists in various traditions Yet the consistent message from all these teachers is to maintain your own daily practice honor your sadhana Finding and committing yourself to either a particular yogic tradition s daily discipline or finding the confidence and dedication to create your own yoga practice can be both daunting and challenging to new yoga students while it eventually becomes an essential part of every day for people with an established practice In Sharing Sadhana the author provides an overview and outline of what yoga sadhana means within western yoga culture and what it means to prominent and experienced yoga teachers and therapists in the western yoga world She interviews yoga teachers such as Richard Miller Nischala Joy Devi Leslie Kaminoff and other prominent practitioners about their views advice and experience of sadhana and what it means to them in their personal daily lives and in their teaching The book offers a means for these experienced practitioners to share information about their own development of sadhana to provide insights into their own personal yoga journey as well as sadhana guidance and inspiration to new and seasoned yoga practitioners It includes the challenges they have faced on their yoga journey and how they have overcome those barriers their advice to other yoga practitioners and how their yoga practice has changed over time Anyone hoping to cultivate a better daily yoga practice will be inspired to begin today Betraying Teachers, Betraying Students Rich Waters,2022-09-28

Schools derived of learning community cultures consistently provide students better learning outcomes than traditional schools The book argues that the current approach to preparing teachers as independent agents via on campus classes is not only ineffective but deprives teachers of extensive development opportunities The proper location of teacher induction and development is in local schools that are derived of a learning community culture where teachers have a full career of professional development Winston Churchill Was a Catholic Priest Richard Doyle,2008-11 Jewels Of Morocco is the name of a tour of The Kingdom of Morocco in North Africa The seven stories in this book take you everywhere from Casablanca where the Hassan II mosque stands to places up and down busy streets shopping in exquisite shops and native markets to see guards at the doors of grand palaces kings and queens an ancient city Berbers in their flowing robes veiled women cedar forests and volcanic mountains red colored mud brick and straw villages that turn into cities clusters of palm trees in valleys climb to the top of snow capped mountains and back down to the bottom of canyons meet nomads ride a camel into the Sahara desert to see the sunset and ride a horse driven carriage through the magical city of Marrakesh at the end of the tour
