My Exaggerated Life ,2018-03-13 An oral biography that reveals the Southern author s true voice Pat Conroy s memoirs and autobiographical novels contain a great deal about his life but there is much he hasn t revealed to readers until now My Exaggerated Life is the product of a special collaboration between this great American author and oral biographer Katherine Clark who recorded two hundred hours of conversations with Conroy before he passed away in 2016 In the spring and summer of 2014 the two spoke for an hour or more on the phone every day No subject was off limits including aspects of his tumultuous life he had never before revealed This oral biography presents Conroy the man as if speaking in person in the colloquial voice familiar to family and friends This voice is quite different from the authorial style found in his books which are famous for their lyricism and poetic descriptions Here Conroy is blunt plainspoken and uncommonly candid While his novels are known for their tragic elements this volume is suffused with Conroy s sense of humor which he credits with saving his life on several occasions The story

Conroy offers here is about surviving and overcoming the childhood abuse and trauma that marked his life. He is frank about his emotional damage, the depression, the alcoholism, the divorces, and above all, the crippling lack of self-esteem and self-confidence. He also sheds light on the forces that saved his life from ruin. The act of writing compelled Conroy to confront the painful truths about his past, while years of therapy with a clinical psychologist helped him achieve a greater sense of self-awareness and understanding. As Conroy recounts his time in Atlanta, Rome, and San Francisco, along with his many years in Beaufort, South Carolina, he portrays a journey full of struggles and suffering that culminated ultimately in redemption and triumph. Although he gained worldwide recognition for his writing, Conroy believed his greatest achievement was in successfully carving out a life filled with family and friends as well as love and happiness. In the end, he arrived at himself and found it was a good place to be.

I have had a read through it; it's certainly an engrossing read and an interesting approach to the subject. Corambaaf: One day in September 1997, Daniel moved in. Daniel unpacked his socks and underpants as he placed them in his new set of drawers in his brand-new bedroom. Since that day, he has never put one item of clothes away. I became keeper of his clothes, stomach emotions, and goldfish. Like every new mum, I was proud of my eight-year-old son. I wanted to show him off. Daniel was warmly welcomed into my world by a league of friends and family. They came bearing gifts, and the words "has he settled in yet?" and "Does he like school?" Of course, he settled in. He had unpacked his pants. Daniel did like school. He took the education system by the throat, swallowed it whole, and spat it out. The education system could not spit as far as Daniel. Daniel was more experienced. The first teacher decided to dedicate her life to him. She was acutely aware of the school's policy on working in partnership with parents. She ignored Daniel and concentrated on me. I still miss her. Daniel's next teacher knew everything about behavior.

management He knew nothing about Daniel Daniel knew everything about him People who live up their own arse shouldn't teach children This is not the Ofsted Standard it is Daniel's Standard Daniel's last teacher at primary school was a man of many words I could not understand most of them I had problems with his speech Daniel did not He tried hard to communicate effectively with him and he was richly rewarded Daniel told his teacher to Luck off He spent the rest of the year sitting outside the staff room They both loved it Daniel's first comprehensive school is the nearest that one will get to a debtors prison My initial visit confirmed that it was full of sex and drugs The toilets were dirty There was an inner sanctum where the head teacher lived From the round window she surveyed all that was in her power She was a chubby woman dressed in a tight black top and a red skirt with matching nail varnish and lipstick She called herself Viv Daniel called her a tart and he was suspended for two days I have travelled with Daniel along the skid row of education I have encountered teachers good and bad ones who cared and ones who did not and ones who did not know how to I have seen their enthusiasm change to despair and their support change to blame I have even seen one who needed a good wash I have never seen one who understood Except perhaps one the head of the local sin bin Daniel ended up there He knew that he would he had been told often enough At our first meeting I was giving him the grand tour around Daniel's past I had just reached the point where Daniel had moved in with us four years previously when the teacher looked at me and said Has he settled in yet

The 1980s: Wife's Extraordinary Life Wen Ning,2020-05-10 After her mother's abandonment of her son and the annulment of the marriage the arranged marriage was also used as a ring and Lin was not very satisfied with the result That ice cold face she really did despise it However that person's face was cold on the surface but his inner body was like a flame that ignited her within minutes From then on her entire life seemed to have been set on fire catching her off guard

Boundless - My long path to inner peace: An extraordinary life story Frank Zunk , In his autobiography author Frank Zunk describes his extraordinary life Frank was the Heino in his youth Parties alcohol crashes criminal offences hatred and violence were his way of life He had his first car accident at the age of 18 It was the 2nd serious accident that changed everything Frank was seriously injured for the second time Now began his long journey to becoming a peace activist At first he had a normal life Then he got into politics Became a UBI activist Anti nuclear activist Learned non violent communication In 2016 Frank survived his first intestinal obstruction In 2018 he had his 2nd heavy intestinal obstruction Frank was hospitalised for a long time with an open stomach He was artificially fed for months In this time he wrote a large part of his autobiography And he had the dream of cycling to Hiroshima For peace and international understanding This book ends with the start of his bicycle journey to Hiroshima Life on the Fringe Benny Chia, 2024-11-18 Benny Chia's memoir of life on the fringe is a vivacious slice of Hong Kong's life and cultural development at a time of minimal institutional support. His colourful and anecdotal story will interest culture practitioners as well as the general reader curious about the Fringe Club and its role as a seedbed for local artists and as a venue for international ones both functions championed by Benny at the helm of this small but important institution housed in a distinctive former ice house in Central. Benny Chia, founder of the Fringe Club and champion of cultural policy, is a revered pioneer. To me, his forty-year love affair with the Fringe is the best Hong Kong success story in terms of cultural exchange and arts engagement. This compelling memoir reveals the secrets behind Benny's achievements, his unparalleled qualities as an artist manager, entrepreneur, intellectual connector, and friend.

SUN MAN TSENG, Adjunct Professor, Education University of Hong Kong, author of The Practice of Arts Administration. Wonderful! What the Fringe Club did for the arts in the 1990s and early 2000s was extremely important. If you were there then, read this and learn some of its secrets. If you missed it, then read this and be stirred to do something extraordinary yourself. Benny's book manages to inspire, enrich, and entertain all at the same time. Just as the Fringe Club used to do.

VICTORIA FINLAY, Author of Colour Travels Through the Paintbox, former arts editor, South China Morning Post. This is a book for people curious about that old building on the hill at Ice House Street and about Hong Kong culture. Benny Chia crafts his memoir with restraint and elegance, much like a director creating a play.

MARISSA FUNG SHAW, Former Trustee, Asian Cultural Council, Member M, Board of Directors. Benny Chia is synonymous with the Fringe Club. Camaraderie and conviviality pervade Life on the Fringe, reminding us of the timelessness of creativity and collaboration, which are two essential ingredients in any meaningful venture. A must-read for arts heritage and history lovers.

LYNN YAU, CEO, The Absolutely Fabulous Theatre Connection. With vivid storytelling and a keen eye for detail, the author candidly unveils his challenges, triumphs, and even failures of navigating a life dedicated to art and culture. A testament to resilience.

G. C. Arts educator.
