Teaching Kenneth R. Himes, OFM, 2005-08-10 With an equal emphasis on every word in the title and with a distinctly American perspective Himes and his distinguished associate editors and contributors have assembled the most thorough and authoritative assessment of modern Roman Catholic social teaching to date likely to remain the touchstone volume for decades This culmination of many years of effort by twenty stellar scholars has produced a reference work for anyone interested in understanding or studying the key documents that comprise the central corpus of Catholic social teaching In addition to interrogations of the major documents this volume provides an understanding of the biblical and philosophical foundations of Catholic social teaching addresses the doctrinal issues that arise in such a context and explores the social thought leading up to the modern era generally accepted as beginning in 1891 with the publication of Pope Leo XIII's Rerum Novarum Finally there is a review of how Catholic social teaching has been received in the United States and an informed look at the shortcomings and questions that future generations must address By any standard Modern Catholic Social Teaching is a remarkable work intellectually rigorous and deeply faithful it provides accessible and thought provoking insights into the heart of a belief tradition that every Catholic will find invaluable The Gospel of Peace and Justice Joseph Gremillion, 1984 Catholic Social Teaching, 1891-Present Charles E. Curran, 2002-03-30 Charles E Curran offers the first comprehensive analysis and criticism of the development of modern Catholic social teaching from the perspective of theology ethics and church history Curran studies the methodology and content of the documents of Catholic social teaching generally understood as comprising twelve papal letters beginning with Leo XIII's 1891 encyclical Rerum novarum two documents from Vatican II and two pastoral letters of the U S bishops He contends that the fundamental basis for this body of teaching comes from an anthropological perspective that recognizes both the inherent dignity and the social nature of the human person thus do the church's teachings on political and economic matters chart a middle course between the two extremes of individualism and collectivism The documents themselves tend to downplay any discontinuities with previous documents but Curran's systematic analysis reveals the significant historical developments that have occurred over the course of more than a century Although greatly appreciative of the many strengths of this teaching Curran also points out the
