Vanhoozer, 2003-07-31 Postmodernity allows for no absolutes and no essence Yet theology is concerned with the absolute the essential How then does theology sit within postmodernity Is postmodern theology possible or is such a concept a contradiction in terms Should theology bother about postmodernism or just get on with its own thing Can it Theologians have responded in many different ways to the challenges posed by theories of postmodernity In this introductory 2003 guide to a complex area editor Kevin J Vanhoozer addresses the issue head on in a lively survey of what talk about God might mean in a postmodern age and vice versa The book then offers examples of different types of contemporary theology in relation to postmodernity while the second part examines the key Christian doctrines in postmodern perspective Leading theologians contribute to this clear and informative Companion which no student of theology should be without Science, Virtue, and the Future of Humanity Marc D. Guerra, Peter Augustine Lawler, 2015-10-08 Science Virtue and the Future of Humanity addresses each of the key public policy issues of our techno future from the perspective of deeply informed and philosophically inclined public intellectuals Among the issues addressed are the detachment of our idea of justice from any credible foundation Tocqueville's prescience on how a cognitive elite might be the aristocracy to be most feared in our time robotization and the possibility of being ruled by morally challenged robots organ markets the degradation of liberal education by obsessive techno enthusiasm biotechnology and biological determinism the birth dearth and the inevitable erosion of our entitlements the possibility that our techno domination is basically an unfolding of the Lockean logic of our foundation and the future of the free exercise of religion in an aggressively libertarian time All in all this book should provoke widespread discussion about the relationship between scientific technological progress and the one true moral spiritual progress that takes place over the course of every particular human life Design Science in the New Paradigm Age Herb
