Sedgwick, 2021-04-08 This book follows the life of Ivan Aguéli the artist anarchist and esotericist notable as one of the earliest Western intellectuals to convert to Islam and to explore Sufism. This book explores different aspects of his life and activities revealing each facet of Aguéli's complex personality in its own right. It then shows how esotericism, art and anarchism finally found their fulfillment in Sufi Islam. The authors analyze how Aguéli's life and conversion show that Islam occupied a more central place in modern European intellectual history than is generally realized. His life reflects several major modern intellectual, political and cultural trends. This book is an important contribution to understanding how he came to Islam, the values and influences that informed his life and ultimately the role he played in the modern Western reception of Islam.

The book focuses on outspoken thinkers in western and eastern Europe, Russia, the United States, Canada and Australia. They include Alain de Benoist, Guillaume Faye, Gtz Kubitschek, Pat Buchanan, Fr i Midjord, Jason Jorjani, contributors to the online magazine Quillette and the elusive personality known as the Bronze Age Pervert. The book explores the diverse intellectual foundations of these thinkers, positions the similarities and differences in their ideas and their prospects for influencing attitudes about democratic politics within their respective countries. It examines diverse movements and schools of thought including the European New Right, Paleoconservatism, the Alt-right, Identitarianism, White nationalism and antifeminism.
