Some Reminiscences of a Tea-clipper Captain. Edited by Rex Clements. [With Plates.]* Andrew SHEWAN, Rex CLEMENTS, 1927 Realms of Gold in Children's Books Bertha E. Mahony Miller, 1929 The Spectator, 1926 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art Historical Dictionary of the U.S. Maritime Industry Kenneth J. Blume, 2011-12-22 From the Spanish galleons of the 16th century to the cruise ships and crude oil tankers of the 21st maritime industries have been central to American economic political and cultural life Great American fortunes were built in the maritime industries and the workers in that industry both the sailors on board the ships and the dockworkers at the port contributed significantly to the nation s growing economy The development of interior waterways especially the canal system paved the way for a transformation of inland North America In the Historical Dictionary of the U S Maritime Industry author Kenneth J Blume provides a convenient survey of this important industry from the colonial period to the present day from sail to steam to nuclear power This concise new reference work captures the key features of overseas coastal lake and river shipping and industry An introduction provides an overview of the industry while the dictionary itself contains more than four hundred cross referenced entries on ships shipping companies famous personalities and major ports A number of appendixes including statistics on foreign trade maritime disasters famous ships and major ports supplement the dictionary and a comprehensive bibliography leads the researcher to further sources This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the maritime industry in the United States Monthly Bulletin of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1929 The American Economic Review, 1928 Includes annual List of doctoral dissertations in political economy in progress in American universities and colleges and the Hand book of the American Economic Association Bulletin of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1929 The True History of Tea Erling Hoh, Victor H. Mair, 2009-03-24 A lively and beautifully illustrated history of one of the world s favorite beverages and its uses through the ages World renowned sinologist Victor H Mair teams up with journalist Erling Hoh to tell the story of this remarkable beverage and its uses from ancient times to the present from East to West For the first time in a popular history of tea the Chinese Japanese Tibetan and Mongolian annals have been thoroughly consulted and carefully sifted The resulting narrative takes the reader from the jungles of Southeast Asia to the splendor of the Tang and Song Dynasties from the tea ceremony politics of medieval Japan to the fabled tea and horse trade of Central Asia and the arrival of the first European vessels in Far Eastern waters Through the centuries tea has inspired artists enhanced religious experience played a pivotal role in the emergence of world trade and triggered cataclysmic events that altered the course of humankind How did green tea become the national beverage of Morocco And who was the beautiful Emma Hart immortalized by George

Romney in his painting The Tea maker of Edgware Road No other drink has touched the daily lives of so many people in so many different ways The True History of Tea brings these disparate aspects together in an entertaining tale that combines solid scholarship with an eye for the quirky offbeat paths that tea has strayed upon during its long voyage It celebrates the common heritage of a beverage we have all come to love and plays a crucial part in the work of dismantling that obsolete dictum East is East and West is West and never the twain shall meet The Publishers Weekly ,1927 The Nation and Athenæum ,1927 Bulletin of the Brooklyn Public Library Brooklyn Public Library,1928 Manavilins Rex Clements,1928 T.P.'s and Cassell's Weekly ,1927 Crossing the Line Simon J. Bronner,2006 For centuries new sailors from European and North American countries have been subjected to an elaborate hazing at sea called crossing the line Typically initiated upon a crossing of the equator the beatings dunkings sexual play and drinking displays that constitute crossing the line have in recent decades been banned by some fleets but they have also been the subject of staunch defenses and fond reminiscences Crossing the Line studies the purpose and the changing meaning of the ceremony substantially revising long held assumptions The Great Days of Sail Andrew Shewan,1973 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1928 Book Review Digest ,1929 Excerpts from and citations to reviews of more than 8 000 books each year drawn from coverage of 109 publications Book Review Digest provides citations to and excerpts of reviews of current juvenile and adult fiction and nonfiction in the English language Reviews of the following types of books are excluded government publications textbooks and technical books in the sciences and law Reviews of books on science for the general reader however are included The reviews originate in a group of selected periodicals in the humanities social sciences and general science published in the United States Canada and Great Britain Publisher
