The Great Divestiture Evaluating The Welfare Impact Of The British Privatizations 1979 1997:

The Great Divestiture Massimo Florio, 2004 Using the tools of social cost benefit analysis Florio assesses the effect of privatization on consumers taxpayers firms shareholders and workers The Challenge of Affluence Avner Offer, 2006-03-09 Since the 1940s Americans and Britons have experienced rising material abundance but also a range of social and personal disorders including family breakdown obesity and addiction Drawing on the latest cognitive research Avner Offer presents a detailed and reasoned critique of the modern consumer society Why Doesn't Microfinance Work? Milford

Bateman, 2010-06-10 Since its emergence in the 1970s microfinance has risen to become one of the most high profile policies to address poverty in developing and transition countries It is beloved of rock stars movie stars royalty high profile politicians and troubleshooting economists In this provocative and controversial analysis Milford Bateman reveals that microfinance doesn't actually work In fact the case for it has been largely built on hype on egregious half truths and latterly on the Wall Street style greed of those promoting and working in microfinance Using a multitude of case studies from India to Cambodia Bolivia to Uganda Serbia to Mexico Bateman demonstrates that microfinance actually constitutes a major barrier to sustainable economic and social development and thus also to sustainable poverty reduction As developing and transition countries attempt to repair the devastation wrought by the global financial crisis Why Doesn't Microfinance Work argues forcefully that the role of microfinance in development policy urgently needs to be reconsidered Changing Times Martin Chick, 2020 A study of the main changes in the British economy from 1951 focussing on nationalisation and privatisation unemployment funding of the NHS and education deindustrialisation and Britain's changing industrial structure taxation inequality environmental change and policy and the UK's changing relationship with the EEC and the European Union

Eliminating the IMF Imad A. Moosa, Nisreen Moosa, 2019-02-11 This book offers a concise but thorough analysis of the International Monetary Fund reform debate Since the advent of the Asian financial crisis in the late 1990s a lengthy deliberation has ensued over whether the IMF should be reformed abolished or left as is The authors approach this debate from a normative perspective while looking at arguments from all sides as well as reflecting on the history functions and ideology of the IMF This unique approach gives weight to the authors perspectives and their conclusion that the IMF ultimately does more harm than good Written to analyze and contribute to the current IMF debate this Palgrave Pivot is a must read for scholars and policymakers invested in the conversation surrounding IMF reform 20th Century Britain Francesca Carnevali, Julie-Marie Strange, 2014-06-11 Written by leading international scholars Twentieth Century Britain investigates key moments themes and identities in the past century Engaging with cutting edge research and debate the essays in the volume combine discussion of the major issues currently preoccupying historians of the twentieth century with clear guidance on new directions in the theories and methodologies of modern British social cultural and economic history Divided into three the first section of the book addresses key concepts historians use to think about the century notably class gender and national identity Organised chronologically the book then explores topical thematic issues such as multicultural Britain religion and citizenship Representing changes in the field some chapters represent more recent fields of historical inquiry such as modernity and sexuality Globalization and Varieties of Capitalism D. Coffey, C. Thornley, 2015-12-11 A study of Britain as a capitalism poised between American and European models exploring themes of legitimation denial and opportunism via a series of substantial case studies framed by a reinterpretation of Thatcherism's economic contexts and a critical assessment of New Labour Big Business and Dictatorships in Latin America Victoria Basualdo, Hartmut Berghoff, Marcelo Bucheli, 2020-12-04 This edited volume studies the relationship between big business and the Latin American dictatorial regimes during the Cold War The first section provides a general background about the contemporary history of business corporations and dictatorships in the twentieth century at the international level The second section comprises chapters that analyze five national cases Argentina Brazil Chile Uruguay and Peru as well as a comparative analysis of the banking sector in the Southern Cone Argentina Brazil Chile and Uruguay The third section presents six case studies of large companies in Argentina Brazil Chile Colombia and Central America This book is crucial reading because it provides the first comprehensive analysis of a key yet understudied topic in Cold War history in Latin America Ill Fares the Land Tony Judt, 2010-03-18 Something is profoundly wrong with the way we think about how we should live today In Ill Fares the Land Tony Judt one of our leading historians and thinkers reveals how we have arrived at our present dangerously confused moment Judt masterfully crystallizes what we've all been feeling into a way to think our way into and thus out of our great collective dis-ease about the current state of things As the economic collapse of 2008 made clear the social contract that defined postwar life in Europe and America the guarantee of a basal level of security stability and fairness is no longer guaranteed in fact it's no longer part of the common discourse Judt offers the language we need to address our common needs rejecting the nihilistic individualism of the far right and the debunked socialism of the past To find a way forward we must look to our not so distant past and to social democracy in action to re-enshrining fairness over mere efficiency Distinctly absent from our national dialogue social democrats believe that the state can play an enhanced role in our lives without threatening our liberties Instead of placing blind faith in the market as we have to our detriment for the past thirty years social democrats entrust their fellow citizens and the state itself Ill Fares the Land challenges us to confront our societal ills and to shoulder responsibility for the world we live in For hope remains In reintroducing alternatives to the status quo Judt reinvigorates our political conversation providing the tools necessary to imagine a new form of governance a new way of life Transforming Provincial Politics Bryan M. Evans, Charles W. Smith, 2015-01-01 Transforming Provincial Politics is the first province by province analysis of politics and political economy in more than a decade and the first to directly examine the turn to neoliberal policies at the provincial and territorial level and examines how neoliberal policies have affected politics in each jurisdiction in Canada The Holistic Manifesto: Centre-Left Policies for the Twenty-First Century E.

P. Anthony, 2016-12-30 E P Anthony an economist trader and wealth manager focuses on the political economy of inequality and the decline of centre left parties in the developed world in this manifesto His analysis will especially appeal to readers in the Anglo Saxon economies of the United Kingdom United States Canada Australia and New Zealand where inequality has increased most rapidly The manifesto summarizes recent literature on inequality in an accessible way including the best selling books by Thomas Piketty Chrysia Freeland and Joseph Stiglitz However while those books provide great analysis Anthony proposes solutions including how to prevent another global financial crisis stimulate economic productivity and growth and take wide ranging action to reduce inequality Legal Strategies for the Development and Protection of Communal Property Ting Xu, Alison Clarke, 2018-10-04 By looking beyond traditional individualist and exclusive ownership models and engaging with communal property practices in different jurisdictions Legal Strategies for the Development and Protection of Communal Property explores the theoretical grounding and policies for the expansion and defence of communal property Owning the Future Adrienne Buller, Mathew Lawrence, 2022-08-23 The question of ownership is the critical fault line of our times During the pandemic this issue has only become more divisive Since March 2020 we have witnessed the extraordinary growth of asset manager capitalism and the explosive concentration of wealth within the hands of the already super rich This new oligarchy controls every part of our social and economics lives In the face of crisis the authors warn that mere redistribution within current forms of ownership is not enough our goal must be to go beyond the limits of the current system dominated by private enclosure and unequal ownership Only by reimagining how our economy is owned and by whom can we address the crises of our time from the fallout of the pandemic to ecological collapse at their roots Building from this insight the authors argue the systemic change we need hinges on a new era of democratic ownership a reinvention of the firm as a vehicle for collective endeavour and meeting social needs Against the new oligarchy of the platform giants a digital commons that uses our data for collective good not private profit In place of environmental devastation a new agenda of decommodification of both nature and needs with a Green New Deal and collective stewardship of the planet s natural wealth Together these proposals offer a road map to owning the future and building a better world

The Political Economy of Public Finance Marc Buggeln, Martin Daunton, Alexander Nützenadel, 2017-02-23 A study of major trends in public finance and fiscal justice in developed capitalist countries since the 1970s Fulfilling Ageing Marisa Cordella, Aldo Poiani, 2021-01-04 This book explores the reality of ageing and old age from the perspectives of the individual and society It emphasizes cross cultural aspects of ageing and communication issues both within and across generations The authors approach the understanding of ageing from a multi disciplinary perspective integrating biology psychology linguistics sociology and history The book is organized as follows historical and broader cross cultural issues of ageing followed by biomedical psychological social and communicative aspects of ageing The book concludes with an in depth analysis of the existential dimension of ageing followed by an evolutionary perspective Handbook on Local and Regional Governance Filipe Teles, 2023-01-13 Holistic in approach this Handbook's international range of leading scholars present complementary perspectives both theoretical and empirically pertinent to explore recent developments in the field of local and regional governance

The Rise of Tzu Chi Chengpang Lee, 2025-04-01 With ten million members worldwide Tzu Chi has influence unmatched by most East Asian religious and non profit organizations The Buddhist foundation was established in Taiwan in 1966 by nun Cheng Yen and a group of laywomen As with most religious movements its success is often attributed to a charismatic leader but The Rise of Tzu Chi offers a strikingly new analysis Chengpang Lee traces Tzu Chi's apparently contradictory trajectory Although authority is centralized it is not authoritarian Each unit has significant autonomy resulting in an exceptional array of charitable initiatives the world's first crowdfunded hospital a Taiwan wide recycling system Asia's most effective bone marrow bank a new university and a global medical humanitarian team Lee convincingly demonstrates that its unique capacity to synthesize religious and lay leadership has allowed Tzu Chi to continuously integrate heterogeneous elements The Rise of Tzu Chi shows us a dynamic Asian religious movement with diversity at the root of its success

Globalisation and EU Policy-making Ian Bartle, 2005 Assesses and contrasts the roles of globalisation institutions and ideas on policy making in the EU Views the creation of liberalised European single markets in the telecommunications and electricity supply sectors out of national monopolies as an example of the dramatic transformation of economic organisation across Europe in the last twenty years Connects micro policy making processes in two industrial sectors to macro international political economy Covers the period from the mid 1980s when the single market came on the agenda through the liberalising initiatives in the 1990s to the new regulatory framework in communications in 2002 and the 2003 directive on the full liberalisation of electricity by 2007 Will be of interest to anyone studying globalisation European integration and policy making regulation and policy in utility sectors

Blue Labour Ian Geary, Adrian Pabst, 2015-09-23 In the aftermath of the global economic crisis and the worst recession for over seventy years Britain has witnessed one of the most turbulent eras in politics since the Second World War The dominant political and capitalistic system has come under close scrutiny and the 2008 financial crash has cast serious doubt on the economic and social liberalism of both Thatcherism and Blairism The Blue Labour movement addresses the fact that neither nationalisation nor privatisation has delivered lasting prosperity or stability Critiquing the dominance in Britain of a social cultural liberalism linked to the left and a free market liberalism associated with the right Blue Labour blends a progressive commitment to greater economic equality with a more conservative disposition emphasising personal loyalty family community and locality Seeking to move beyond the centrist pragmatism of Blair and Cameron this essential work speaks to the needs of diverse people and communities across the country It is the programme of a vital new force in politics one that could define the thinking of the next generation and beyond
