Hischak, 2015-04-16 For more than a century original music has been composed for the cinema From the early days when live music accompanied silent films to the present in which a composer can draw upon a full orchestra or a lone synthesizer to embody a composition music has been an integral element of most films By the late 1930s movie studios had established music departments and some of the greatest names in film music emerged during Hollywood's Golden Age including Alfred Newman Max Steiner Dimitri Tiomkin and Bernard Herrmann Over the decades other creators of screen music offered additional memorable scores and some composers such as Henry Mancini Randy Newman and John Williams have become household names The Encyclopedia of Film Composers features entries on more than 250 movie composers from around the world It not only provides facts about these artists but also explains what makes each composer notable and discusses his or her music in detail Each entry includes Biographical material Important dates Career highlights Analysis of the composer's musical style Complete list of movie credits This book brings recognition to the many men and women who have written music for movies over the past one hundred years In addition to composers from the United States and Great Britain artists from dozens of other countries are also represented A rich resource of movie music history The Encyclopedia of Film Composers will be of interest to fans of cinema in general as well as those who want to learn more about the many talented individuals who have created memorable scores Listen to Movie Musicals! James E. Perone, 2020-01-13 Listen to Movie Musicals provides an overview of musical theater on film for fans of the genre with a focus on 50 must hear musicals featured in movies Listen to Movie Musicals includes an overview of musical theatre and movie musicals in the United States The 50 movies chosen for critical analysis include many of the best known film musicals of the past and present however the list also includes several important movie musicals that were popular successes that are not necessarily on the best of lists in other books This volume also includes a greater focus on the actual music of movie musicals than do most other books making it a stand out title on the topic for high school and college readers Like the other books in this series this volume includes a background chapter followed by a chapter that contains 50 important essays on must hear movie musicals of approximately 1 500 words each Chapters on the impact of movie musicals on popular culture and the legacy of movie musicals further explain the impact of both the movies and their songs Sound Design is the New Score Danijela Kulezic-Wilson, 2020 The practice of blurring the line between score and sound design has transformed contemporary film soundscape by challenging not only the long established hierarchical relationships between dialogue music and sound effects but also the modes of perception shaped by classical soundtrack practices The methods of this new trend rely on the language of contemporary popular and art music producing soundtracks in which it is difficult to tell the difference between score and ambient sound where pieces of electroacoustic music are merged with diegetic sound sound effects are absorbed into the score or treated as music and diegetic sound is treated as musique concrète In Sound Design is the New Score Kulezic Wilson explores theoretical aesthetic and sensuous dimensions of this new trend providing a multifaceted portrait of a practice which recognizes the interconnectedness of all soundtrack elements and emphasizes their inherent musicality The aesthetic concerns of this practice are illuminated through the concept of the aesthetics of reticence which rejects classical narrative and scoring conventions and uses integrated soundtrack strategies to create the space for mystery in art and for individuality in the cinematic experience The book's emphasis on sensuous and musical aspects of this practice informed by the feminist discourse on the erotics of art challenges popular notions about sensory cinema demonstrating that the sensuousness of film form and its soundscapes is more sophisticated than simply being the result of excessive sensory stimulation facilitated by the use of digital technology or the intensified aesthetics it inspires The discussion is supported by a wide range of case studies from American Independent Asian Australian and European cinemas including films by Shane Carruth Claire Denis Hou Hsiao Hsien Harmony Korine David Michôd Gus Van Sant and Peter Strickland The Man That Got Away Walter Rimler, 2015-09-15 Over the Rainbow Stormy Weather and One for My Baby are just a few of Harold Arlen's well loved compositions Yet his name is hardly known except to the musicians who venerate him At a gathering of songwriters George Gershwin called him the best of us Irving Berlin agreed Paul McCartney sent him a fan letter and became his publisher Bob Dylan wrote of his fascination with Arlen's bittersweet lonely world A cantor's son Arlen believed his music was from a place outside himself a place that also sent tragedy When his wife became mentally ill and was institutionalized he turned to alcohol It nearly killed him But the beautiful songs kept coming Blues in the Night My Shining Hour Come Rain or Come Shine and The Man That Got Away Walter Rimler drew on interviews with friends and associates of Arlen and on newly available archives to write this intimate portrait of a genius whose work is a pillar of the Great American Songbook Film Music at the Piano H. Stephen Wright,2003 Printed versions of instrumental film scores can be quite difficult to find and in many cases the arrangements cited in this book are the only available printed manifestations The text presents virtually every major film composer including Max Steiner Erich Wolfgang Korngold Bernard Hermann Jerry Goldsmith and John Williams
