The Great Romantic Films:

Immortal Films Barbara Klinger, 2022-11-15 Introduction the cultural biography of a film Listening to Casablanca radio adaptations and sonic Hollywood Back in theaters postwar repertory houses and cult cinema Everyday films broadcast television reruns and canonizing old Hollywood Movie valentines holiday cult and the romantic canon in VHS video culture Happy anniversaries classic cinema on DVD Blu ray in the conglomerate age Epilogue streaming Casablanca and afterthoughts Appendix one Casablanca s first appearances on US platforms formats Appendix two Casablanca s physical format video rereleases      The 100 Greatest Christmas Movies Scott Speed, 2022-12-04 The book that follows contains one hundred Christmas themed movies and television specials that you should certainly consider watching during the festive season The qualification for entry here is that each film should at least contain a Christmas scene or be set at Christmas There are many perennial Christmas viewing staples like The Wizard of Oz and Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory but films like this don t qualify for our book because they aren t set at Christmas Films like On Her Majesty s Secret Service and Night of the Hunter DO qualify though because they have references to Christmas That s how our list works You ll find a very eclectic mix in the book that follows Beloved television cartoons comedy specials obscure horror films art house movies action classics stop motion animation anthology segments and even a few bizarre or cheesy guilty pleasures The list that follows is truly a case of the sublime and the ridiculous at times The connective tissue though is always Christmas So put another log on the fire get yourself a mince pie and prepare to dive into the 100 Greatest Christmas Movies      The Greatest Romance Classics of All Time Stendhal, Charles Dickens, William Shakespeare, Burton Egbert Stevenson, Charlotte Brontë, Anne Brontë, Emily Brontë, Henry James, Louisa May Alcott, Jane Austen, George Eliot, Walter Scott, Thomas Hardy, O. Douglas, Edith Wharton, Alexandre Dumas, Meredith Nicholson, Virginia Woolf, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Gaston Leroux, Grace Livingston Hill, Theodore Dreiser, Kate Chopin, Earl Derr Biggers, Fanny Burney, Georgette Heyer, H. G. Wells, E. M. Forster, F. Scott Fitzgerald, Leo Tolstoy, Elizabeth Gaskell, P.G. Wodehouse, R.D. Blackmore, Pierre Choderlos de Laclos, Madeleine L'Engle, 2023-11-12 The Greatest Romance Classics of All Time is a monumental collection that showcases the breadth and depth of romantic literature spanning centuries and encapsulating a variety of literary styles From the tragic depths of Tolstoy s explorations of love and loss to the witty and satirical amours immortalized by Jane Austen from the Gothic passions of the Brontë sisters to the modernist portrayals of love s complexities by Virginia Woolf this anthology offers a panoramic view of the ways in which romance has been conceived and reconceived in literary history Standout pieces include the timeless tragedy of Shakespeare s star crossed lovers the intricate social dances of Edith Wharton s New York and the poignant unspoken desires in the works of E M Forster highlighting the collection s range from the elation of young love to the introspection of love lost The contributing authors an illustrious assembly of some of literature s most revered names bring to this collection an unmatched depth of cultural and historical contexts The diversity of authors spanning from the dawn of modern literature with Fanny Burney to the keen observations of social conventions and individual desires by Henry James and the innovative narrative styles of F Scott Fitzgerald mirrors the evolution of the romance genre itself This anthology not only aligns with major literary movements from Romanticism to Realism to Modernism but also presents a unique dialogue across cultures and epochs showcasing the universal and evolving nature of love and human connection This collection is an indispensable treasure for those who wish to immerse themselves in the rich legacy of romance literature It offers readers a unique opportunity to explore love in its myriad forms from the fiery and tumultuous to the subtle and unspoken This anthology is not merely a celebration of romantic love but an educational voyage through the landscapes of human emotion and societal norms as expressed through romantic encounters across time It is a must read for those looking to understand the multifaceted nature of love appreciate the genius of literary giants and experience the timeless dialogue between changing societies and the enduring human heart through the lens of romance

Women's Film and Female Experience, 1940-1950 Andrea Walsh, 1986-09-10 Women's Film and Female Experience takes a fresh look at a wide range of popular women's films in order to discover what American female consciousness in the 1940s was really about The author traces the evolution and development of the Hollywood women's film and describes the social history of American women in the 1940s She then analyzes dominant narrative patterns within popular women's films of the decade the maternal drama the career woman comedy and the films of suspicion and distrust James Stewart Lawrence J. Quirk, 1999-10-28 Applause Books This startling intimate biography of James Stewart frankly reveals with new facts and discovers a fully dimensional view of this revered figure and consummate American icon Shrewd self protective financially astute the James Stewart that Mr Quirk uncovers was no bumbling naive Mr Smith but a Man of the World

The English in Love Claire Langhamer, 2013-08-22 Love has a history It has meant different things to different people at different moments and has served different purposes This book tells the story of love at a crucial point a moment when the emotional landscape changed dramatically for large numbers of people It is a story based in England but informed by America and covers the period from the end of the First World War until the break up of The Beatles To the casual observer this era was a golden age of marriage More people married than ever before They did so at increasingly younger ages And there was a revolution in our idea of what marriage meant Pragmatic notions of marriage as institution were superseded by the more romantic ideal of a relationship based upon individual emotional commitment love sex and personal fulfilment And yet this new idea of marriage based on a belief in the transformative power of love and emotion carried within it the seeds of its own destruction Romantic love particularly when tied to sexual satisfaction ultimately proved an unreliable foundation upon which to build marriages fatally it had the potential to evaporate over time and under pressure Scratching beneath the surface of the apparent golden age of marriage Claire Langhamer uncovers the real story of love in the twentieth century via the recollections of ordinary people who lived through the period It is a tale of quiet emotional instability persistent subversion and unsettling change At its end the idea of life long marriage was in serious decline And as Langhamer shows this was a decline directly rooted in the contradictions and tensions that lay at the heart of the emotional revolution itself

Nazi Film Melodrama Laura Heins, 2013-09-16 Cultural productions in the Third Reich often served explicit propaganda functions of legitimating racism and glorifying war and militarism Likewise the proliferation of domestic and romance films in Nazi Germany also represented an ideological stance Rather than reinforcing traditional gender role divisions and the status quo of the nuclear family these films were much more permissive about desire and sexuality than previously assumed Focusing on German romance films domestic melodramas and home front films from 1933 to 1945 Nazi Film Melodrama shows how melodramatic elements in Nazi cinema functioned as part of a project to move affect body and desire beyond the confines of bourgeois culture and participate in a curious modernization of sexuality engineered to advance the imperialist goals of the Third Reich Offering a comparative analysis of Nazi productions with classical Hollywood films of the same era Laura Heins argues that German fascist melodramas differed from their American counterparts in their negative views of domesticity and in their use of a more explicit antibourgeois rhetoric Nazi melodramas film writing and popular media appealed to viewers by promoting liberation from conventional sexual morality and familial structures presenting the Nazi state and the individual as dynamic and revolutionary Some spectators objected to the eroticization and modernization of the public sphere under Nazism however pitting Joseph Goebbels Ministry of Propaganda against more conservative film audiences in a war over the very status of domesticity and the shape of the family Drawing on extensive archival research this perceptive study highlights the seemingly contradictory aspects of gender representation and sexual morality in Nazi era cinema

Focus On: 100 Most Popular French-language Films Wikipedia contributors, A Companion to François Truffaut Dudley Andrew, Anne Gillain, 2013-02-11 A Companion to François Truffaut An unprecedented critical tribute to the director who in France wound up becoming the most controversial figure of the New Wave he helped found Raymond Bellour Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique This exciting collection breaks through the widely held critical view that Truffaut abandoned the iconoclasm of his early work for an academicism he had consistently railed against in his own film criticism Indeed if fever and fire were Truffaut's most consistent motifs the essays in this collection live up to his lifelong burning passion for the cinema Written by world famous scholars the essays exhaustively explore the themes and styles of the films as well as Truffaut's relationships to André Bazin Alfred Hitchcock and the directors of the New Wave his ground breaking and controversial film criticism and his position in the complex politics of French cultural life from the Popular Front to 1968 and after Angelo Restivo Georgia State University Although the New Wave one of the most influential aesthetic revolutions in the history of cinema might not have existed without him François Truffaut has largely been ignored by film scholars since his death almost thirty years ago As an innovative theoretician an influential critic and a celebrated filmmaker Truffaut formulated disseminated and illustrated the ideals of the New Wave with exceptional energy and distinction Yet no book in recent years has focused on Truffaut's value and his overall contribution to cinema deserves to be redefined not only to reinstate him in his proper place but to let us rethink how cinema developed during his lifetime In this new Companion thirty four original essays by leading film scholars offer new readings of individual films and original perspectives on the filmmaker's background influences and consequence Hugely influential around the globe Truffaut is assessed by international contributors who delve into the unique quality of his narratives and establish the depth of his distinctively styled work An extended interview with French filmmaker Arnaud Desplechin tracks Truffaut's controversial stature within French cinema and vividly identifies how he thinks and works as a director adding an irreplaceable perspective to this essential volume

Michael Powell David Lazar, 2003 This collection of interviews reveals the mind and the tactics of a master filmmaker who is woefully under known even as his films are widely celebrated throughout the world

Contemporary French Cinema Alan J. Singerman, Michèle Bissière, 2018-09-15 Like its French language companion volume Le Cinéma français contemporain Manuel de classe Alan Singerman and Michèle Bissière's Contemporary French Cinema: A Student's Book offers a detailed look at recent French cinema through its analyses of twenty notable and representative French films that have appeared since 1980 Sure to delight Anglophone fans of French film it can be used with equal success in English language courses and when paired with its companion volume dual language ones Acclaim for Le Cinéma français contemporain Manuel de classe From Le Dernier Métro to Intouchables Bissière and Singerman cover the latest trends of French cinema emphasizing context and analytical method as Singerman did in Apprentissage du cinéma français Focus 2004 The authors offer a selection of films most French cinephiles will applaud and they incorporate insights from some of the best critical work on French cinema Students of French film will also find all the bibliographical pointers they need to dig deeper and instructors will appreciate the pedagogical components included in the chapters Jonathan Walsh Department of French Studies Wheaton College Massachusetts This remarkable book comes to us from two seasoned teachers and critics and beautifully complements an earlier work Alan Singerman's Apprentissage du cinéma français The time period covered more targeted here than in the preceding text is admirably well chosen and the breakdown by broad category each offering multiple options guides the teacher while offering a choice among an abundance of interesting films The preliminary chapters both succinct and informative give students an excellent overview of French cinema as a whole and of the technical knowledge needed for film analysis Each of the subsequent chapters offers an indispensable introduction discussing the plot director production actors reception and context of the film in question and also provides a very useful filmography and bibliography an exemplary work Brigitte E.
