W. E. Butler

The Green Ray:

The Green Ray Andrew Hunt, 2016 The Green Ray takes its starting point from French new wave director Eric Rohmer's 1986 film Le Rayon Vert The Green Ray and deals with contemporary subjects of literature cinema painting writing and the post digital sublime Online press release accessed 15 March 2016 The Green Ray Jules Verne, 1883 The Green Ray (le Rayon Vert) Jules Verne, 2017-10-18 The heroes are trying to observe the green ray in Scotland After numerous unsuccessful tries caused by clouds flocks of birds or distant boat sails hiding the sun the phenomenon is eventually visible but the heroes finding love in each other's eyes don't pay attention to the horizon Scientific basis Green flashes and green rays are rare optical phenomena that occur shortly after sunset or before sunrise when a green spot is visible for a short period of time above the sun or a green ray shoots up from the sunset point It is usually observed from a low altitude where there is an unobstructed view of the horizon such as on the ocean The idea in the novel that one can predict where and when to observe the green ray has no scientific basis However they are regularly sighted by airplane pilots because they often can see the true horizon in mid flight more often when flying west because the sun's relative motion is slightly slower Lords of Light W. E. Butler, 1990-12 The last public work of W E Butler before his death in 1978 this series of talks offers a fascinating personal and accessible course of training in the Western Mystery Schools by one of the world's great occultists With humility humor and conviction Butler conveys an extensive knowledge of the occult mysteries including ritual and ceremonial magic the awakening of the kundalini energy and the path of the regeneration of the personality and the relinquishing of false ego through control of one's mental and emotional reactions back cover The Green Ray Jules Verne, 2021-02-23 The Green Ray is a novel by the French writer Jules Verne published in 1882 and named after the optical phenomenon of the same name The Nature of Light and Colour in the Open Air M. Theatre, Exhibition, and Curation Georgina Guy,2016-04-20 Examining the artistic intellectual and social life of performance this book interrogates Theatre and Performance Studies through the lens of display and modern visual art Moving beyond the exhibition of immaterial art and its documents as well as re enactment in gallery contexts Guy s book articulates an emerging field of arts practice distinct from but related to increasing curatorial provision for live performance Drawing on a recent proliferation of object centric events of display that interconnect with theatre the book approaches artworks in terms of their curation together and re theorizes the exhibition as a dynamic context in which established traditions of display and performance interact By examining the current traffic of ideas and aesthetics moving between theatricality and curatorial practice the study reveals how the reception of a specific form is often mediated via the ontological expectations of another It asks how contemporary visual arts and exhibition practices display performance and what it means to generalize the theatrical as the optic or directive of a curatorial concept Proposing a symbiotic relation between theatricality and display Guy presents cases from international arts institutions which are both displayed and performed including the Tate Modern and the Guggenheim and assesses their significance to the enduring relation between theatre and the visual arts The book progresses from the conventional alignment of theatricality and ephemerality within performance research and teases out a new temporality for performance with which contemporary exhibitions implicitly experiment thereby identifying supplementary modes of performance which other discourses exclude This important study joins the fields of Theatre and Performance Studies with exciting new directions in curation aesthetics sociology of the arts visual arts the creative industries the digital humanities cultural heritage and reception and audience theories
