Florence Hartley

The Ladies Handbook Of Etiquette And Manual Of Politeness:

Ladies' Book of Etiquette, and Manual of Politeness Florence Hartley, 1860 Do unto others as you would others should do to you You can never be rude if you bear the rule always in mind for what lady likes to be treated rudely True Christian politeness will always be the result of an unselfish regard for the feelings of others and though you may err in the ceremonious points of etiquette you will never be im polite Politeness founded upon such a rule becomes the expression in graceful manner of social virtues The spirit of politeness consists in a certain attention to forms and ceremonies which are meant both to please others and ourselves and to make others pleased with us a still clearer definition may be given by saying that politeness is goodness of heart put into daily practice there can be no true politeness without kindness purity singleness of heart and sensibility Many believe that politeness is but a mask worn in the world to conceal bad passions and impulses and to make a show of possessing virtues not really existing in the heart thus that politeness is merely hypocrisy and dissimulation Do not believe this be certain that those who profess such a doctrine are practising themselves the deceit they condemn so much The Ladies' Book Of Etiquette, And Manual Of Politeness Florence Hartley, 2023-10-19 The Ladies Book of Etiquette and Manual of Politeness is a 19th century guidebook on etiquette and manners written by Florence Hartley Published in 1860 it provides guidance to women on conducting themselves with grace courtesy and propriety in various social situations of the era Topics covered include behavior at social gatherings rules for correspondence hosting guests and guidelines for dress and personal grooming The book reflects the social norms and values of the mid 19th century offering insight into the expectations and roles of women during that period The Ladies' Book of Etiquette, and Manual of Politeness Florence Hartley, 2016-09-16 There is no branch of education called so universally into requisition as the art of letter writing no station high or low where the necessity for correspondence is not felt no person young or old who does not at some time write cause to be written and receive letters From the President in his official capacity with the busy pens of secretaries constantly employed in this branch of service to the Irish laborer who unable to guide a pen writes also by proxy to his kinsfolks across the wide ocean all at some time feel the desire to transmit some message word of love business or sometimes enmity by letter Many believe that politeness is but a mask worn in the world to conceal bad passions and impulses and to make a show of possessing virtues not really existing in the heart thus that politeness is merely hypocrisy and dissimulation Do not believe this be certain that those who profess such a doctrine are practising themselves the deceit they condemn so much Such people scout politeness because to be truly a lady one must carry the principles into every circumstance of life into the family circle the most intimate friendship and never forget to extend the gentle courtesies of life to every one This they find too much trouble and so deride the idea of being polite and call it deceitfulness True politeness is the language of a good heart and those possessing that heart will never under any circumstances be rude They may not enter a crowded saloon gracefully they may be entirely ignorant of the forms of good society they may be awkward at table

ungrammatical in speech but they will never be heard speaking so as to wound the feelings of another they will never be seen making others uncomfortable by seeking solely for their own personal convenience they will always endeavor to set every one around them at ease they will be self sacrificing friendly unselfish truly in word and deed polite Give to such a woman the knowledge of the forms and customs of society teach her how best to show the gentle courtesies of life and you have a lady created by God only indebted for the outward polish to the world
