Lonely Planet England Lonely Planet, A Kid Who Became a Man Matteo Casciato,2011-09-19 Alberto is the main personage in the novel and he represents 75 percent of the authors life He is a young man born from a very poor family Even so he is able to get two degrees a masters degree in French language and literature and an associate degree in business administration He started to attend the Orientale of Naples in Italy when he was twenty two years old In order to earn enough money to pay board lodging and the expenses to attend courses at the university he started to work in a private college He remained in Naples for two years Here while he was studying he founded together with other students a club and a magazine that started a struggle against the magnates of the university for the purpose of improving the teaching methodology When the struggle moved from the schools to the parliament Alberto decided to quit Italy and went to France He spent one year in Lyon as tutor in the Franco Canadienne college and three years in Nice teaching Italian language and culture in the Lycee Massena Ecole Normale Dante Alighieri Society and the Chamber of Commerce While he was teaching he also attended courses of French language and literature at the university and prepared himself for the exams in the Orientale of Naples During summer months he went to Spain in order to improve his knowledge of Spanish language and literature attending courses at the University of Saragoza in Jaca In France like in Spain he was admired and appreciated as a young man able to resolve any intricate matter easily and creatively He wanted to live his life intensely without ceasing to love his girlfriend with all his heart He had experienced several loving adventures that made him fall into a deep moral and spiritual crisis Alberto said I do not know anymore who I am I act against my own principles Influenced by the French culture he understood that those principles he called his own were indeed not his but only principles accepted by him or transmitted to him by his family his school his church his town Living in Paris Alberto understood that the only valid principles in our lives were those that we created or accepted after careful consideration From now on Alberto will work hard to create his own principles and to resolve his moral and spiritual crisis In order to succeed said Alberto it is not enough to say it you must do it Being equipped with a strong dose of determination self assurance and a lot of energy he began to discard all those principles in which he did not believe anymore retaining those in which he still believed and at the same time created new ones He said There are some principles that must be saved because they represent the foundation and the understanding of our Western civilization By now Alberto was aware of being what he always wanted to become a young man hungry to accomplish what he had initiated After three years of separation Alberto went to the United States in order to see Enza his girlfriend and he decided to marry her He returned to Nizza with Enza They had a first son They returned to Italy He completed his studies getting a masters degree in French language and literature and went to live in the United States Needing to support his family he started to work in a bank and he remained there for thirty five years spending the first two achieving an associate degree in business administration The author tells the life of Alberto from infancy to youth In the entire novel there are many descriptions of landscapes in particular of his native town Alberto directly or indirectly lived the horrors of the two world wars the occupation of his town first by the Germans then by the Allies He visited Cassino a city that had been razed to the ground by the bombers during the Second World War Alberto also lived through the Fascist period and the political awakening of the great masses and their revolutionary agitations for the occupa

How to Enjoy Architecture Charles Holland, 2024-04-23 Charles Holland challenges us to look beyond the day to day familiarity of buildings to rediscover the pleasure of experiencing architecture Architecture is bound up with our daily lives but for most of us it is experienced as a blur of habit Our reactions towards the buildings that surround us are often culturally generated and we experience them in ways that are immediate but often mundane How to Enjoy Architecture A Guide for Everyone encourages us to move beyond this and instead really look at buildings Renowned architect Charles Holland talks about the buildings and architects that excite and inspire him and the ideas and principles through which we can engage with architecture By breaking buildings down into categories such as materials structure space and use Holland guides us through drastically different styles and building types from the satisfying symmetry of a Queen Anne house to the thrill of a high tech tower or the social ideals that lie behind a housing estate In doing so he demonstrates how looking at experiencing and using architecture can bring joy in itself A book that will enrich any encounter with a building it made me want to look harder and be more curious We are led playfully through the fundamentals of architecture so that we might enjoy the details and the poetry of buildings all the more A walk through the city feels more fun and also more profound after reading this book Grayson Perry artist We so often encounter architecture when it goes wrong or offends us with its looks Holland though is the perfect clear headed tour guide to help us appreciate it with newly sharpened senses and fall in love again even those buildings we think we hate Tom Dyckhoff academic and broadcaster An enlightening and urbane exploration of architecture that resonates beyond conventional chronological histories Catherine Slessor architecture writer and critic
