Death beyond Disavowal Grace Kyungwon Hong, 2015-10-01 Death beyond Disavowal utilizes difference as theorized by women of color feminists to analyze works of cultural production by people of color as expressing a powerful antidote to the erasures of contemporary neoliberalism According to Grace Kyungwon Hong neoliberalism is first and foremost a structure of disavowal enacted as a reaction to the successes of the movements for decolonization desegregation and liberation of the post World War II era It emphasizes the selective and uneven affirmation and incorporation of subjects and ideas that were formerly categorically marginalized particularly through invitation into reproductive respectability It does so in order to suggest that racial gendered and sexualized violence and inequity are conditions of the past rather than the foundations of contemporary neoliberalism's exacerbation of premature death Neoliberal ideologies hold out the promise of protection from premature death in exchange for complicity with this pretense In Audre Lorde's Sister Outsider Cherrie Moraga's The Last Generation and Waiting in the Wings Oscar Zeta Acosta's The Revolt of the Cockroach People Ana Castillo's So Far from God Gayl Jones's Corregidora Isaac Julien's Looking for Langston Inge Blackman's B D Women Rodney Evans's Brother to Brother and the work of the late Barbara Christian Death beyond Disavowal finds the memories of death and precarity that neoliberal ideologies attempt to erase Hong posits cultural production as a compelling rejoinder to neoliberalism's violences She situates women of color feminism often dismissed as narrow or limited in its effect as a potent diagnosis of and alternative to such violences And she argues for the importance of women of color feminism to any critical engagement with contemporary neoliberalism Transnational Chicana Perspectives on Ana Castillo Bernadine Hernández, Karen Roybal, 2021-06-15 For more than forty years Chicana author Ana Castillo has produced novels poems and critical essays that forge connections between generations challenge borders around race gender and sexuality and critically engage transnational issues of space identity and belonging Her contributions to Latinx cultural production and to Chicana feminist thought have transcended and

Aldama, Frederick Luis Aldama, 2020-09-08 Latinx hypersexualized lovers or kingpin predators pulsate from our TVs smartphones and Hollywood movie screens Tweets from the executive office brand Latinxs as bad hombre hordes and marauding rapists and traffickers A list Anglo historical figures like Billy the Kid haunt us with their toxic masculinities These are the themes creatively explored by the eighteen contributors in Decolonizing Latinx Masculinities Together they explore how legacies of colonization and capitalist exploitation and oppression have created toxic forms of masculinity that continue to suffocate our existence as Latinxs And while the authors seek to identify all cultural phenomena that collectively create reductive destructive and toxic constructions of masculinity that traffic in misogyny and homophobia they also uncover the many spaces such as Xicana Indigena languages resistant food cultures music performances and queer
