Last Run of the Whisperer Calvin J. Boal,2011-05 Last Run of the Whisperer is a historical fiction novel based upon the Revolutionary War records of William Waterman of Norwich Connecticut colony The author has taken the information that William Waterman has provided to us through his own account of his service in the American Revolution when he petitioned the United States Congress in 1832 for a pension for said service The author has taken the information provided by William Waterman and completed extensive research on the battles and areas of service that our hero served in embellishing and expounded upon this information to develop an exciting and accurate historical story surrounding our hero William Waterman William Waterman himself in his petition to the United States Congress identifies one severe wound received in said service at the battle of White Plain in the colony of New York above New York City This wound by itself could have cost our hero his life That he survived this wound and the numerous other battles and action that he undoubtedly saw was extraordinary Although William Waterman lists a number of battles and theatres of war he saw service in he does not describe the details of these battles The author takes his literary liberty upon researching these battles and events to interject our hero into the battles That William Waterman is involved in each and everyone of these battles or theatres of war
