The Last Stop Writing From Comstock Prison:

The Last Stop Joseph Bruchac, 1974 When the Smoke Cleared Celes Tisdale, 2022-10-17 Following the Attica prison uprising in September 1971 Celes Tisdale a poet and then professor at Buffalo State College began leading poetry workshops with those incarcerated at Attica Tisdale's workshop created a space of radical Black creativity and solidarity in which poets who lived through the uprising were able to turn their experiences into poetry The poems written by Tisdale's students were published as Betcha Ain't Poems from Attica in 1974 When the Smoke Cleared contains the entirety of Betcha Ain't Tisdale's own poems and journal entries from the three years he taught at Attica a previously unpublished collection of poems by Attica poets and a critical introduction by poet Mark Nowak In addition to the poetry Tisdale's journal entries give readers a unique opportunity to experience what it was like to enter Attica as an educator and return week after week to discuss poetry When the Smoke Cleared showcases these poets' achievements their desire for self-determination and their historical role as storytellers of Black life in a prison monitored exclusively by white guards and administrators The Political Uses of Literature Benjamin Kohlmann, Ivana Perica, 2024-01-11 Drawing on a global history of politicized writing this book explores literature's utility as a mode of activism and aesthetic engagement with the political challenges of the current moment The question of literature's uses has recently become a key topic of academic and public debate Paradoxically however these conversations often tend to bypass the rich history of engagements with literature's distinctly political uses that form such a powerful current of 20th and 21st century artistic production and critical theoretical reflection The Political Uses of Literature reopens discussion of literature's political and activist genealogies along several interrelated lines As a foundational moment it draws attention to the important body of interwar politicized literature and to debates about literature's ability to intervene in social reality It then traces the mobilization of related conversations and artistic practices across several historical conjunctures most notably the committed literature of the 1960s and our own present In mapping out these geographically and artistically diverse traditions including case studies from the Americas Europe Africa India and Russia contributors advance critical discussions in the field making questions pertaining to politicized art newly compelling to a broader and more diverse readership Most importantly this volume insists on the need to think about literature's political uses today at a time when it has become increasingly difficult to imagine any kind of political efficacy for art even as the need to do so is growing more and more acute Literature may not proffer easy answers to our political problems but as this collection suggests the writing of the 20th century holds out aesthetic resources for a renewed engagement with the dilemmas that face us now Allies Ed Pavlic, Evie Shockley, Yvonne Adhiambo Owuor, Ladan Osman, 2019-12-10 Original poetry fiction and cultural criticism explore issues of trust bridge building difference and betrayal both political and private How do we know who is on our side Is it possible for someone who is not like us to share our hopes Can links forged by empathy or mutual interest match those created by shared experience What can we gain from alliances that we cannot achieve on our own These are difficult question to answer even in intimate settings and more so in arenas of cultural and political struggle Through original poetry fiction and cultural criticism from both established writers and newcomers Allies offers unique insights into issues of trust bridge building difference and betrayal Drawing on the prophetic power of the imagination to conjure both the possible dangers and life giving possibilities of alliances be they political private such as marriage therapeutic or even aesthetic between readers and writers for example Allies will be essential reading for our times Allies is the first publication of Boston Review s newly inaugurated Arts in Society department A radical revisioning of the magazine s poetry and fiction the department unites them along with cultural criticism and belles lettres into a project that explores how the arts can speak directly to the most pressing political and civic concerns of our age from growing inequality to racial and gender regimes a disempowered electorate and a collapsing natural world Fiction Samuel Delany Tananarive Due Catherine Taylor Poetry Jane Miller Ru Puro Emilia Nielsen Sarah Vap Rachel Levitsky Tess Liem Interviews Walter Johnson and Tef Poe Robin D G Kelley and Vijay Iyer Essays Roderick Ferguson Micki McEyla Mark Nowak Mattilda Bernstein Sycamore Abdullah Ta a Social Poetics Mark Nowak,2020-03-10 Social Poetics documents the imaginative militancy and emergent solidarities of a new insurgent working class poetry community rising up across the globe Part autobiography part literary criticism part Marxist theory Social Poetics presents a people s history of the poetry workshop from the founding director of the Worker Writers School Nowak illustrates not just what poetry means but what it does to and for people outside traditional literary spaces from taxi drivers to street vendors and other workers of the world Encyclopedia of American Indian Literature Jennifer McClinton-Temple,Alan Velie,2015-04-22 Presents an encyclopedia of American Indian literature in an alphabetical format listing authors and their works Memoirs of American Prisons Daniel Suvak,1979 Prison Literature in America Howard Bruce Franklin,1989 This greatly expanded third edition of the first full length study of American prison literature contains much new material on current prison literature with the Annotated Bibliography of Published Works by American Prisoners and Ex Prisoners now twice its original size Afro-American Poetry and Drama, 1760-1975 William P.
