Pickover, 2011-11-28 Humanity s love affair with mathematics and mysticism reached a critical juncture legend has it on the back of a turtle in ancient China As Clifford Pickover briefly recounts in this enthralling book the most comprehensive in decades on magic squares Emperor Yu was supposedly strolling along the Yellow River one day around 2200 B C when he spotted the creature its shell had a series of dots within squares To Yu s amazement each row of squares contained fifteen dots as did the columns and diagonals When he added any two cells opposite along a line through the center square like 2 and 8 he always arrived at 10 The turtle unwitting inspirer of the Yu square went on to a life of courtly comfort and fame

Pickover explains why Chinese emperors Babylonian astrologer priests prehistoric cave people in France and ancient Mayans of the Yucatan were convinced that magic squares arrays filled with numbers or letters in certain arrangements held the secret of the universe Since the dawn of civilization he writes humans have invoked such patterns to ward off evil and bring good fortune Yet who would have guessed that in the twenty first century mathematicians would be studying magic squares so immense and in so many dimensions that the objects defy ordinary human contemplation and visualization Readers are treated to a colorful history of magic squares and similar structures their construction and classification along with a remarkable variety of newly discovered objects ranging from ornate inlaid magic cubes to hypercubes Illustrated examples occur throughout with some patterns from the author s own experiments The tesseracts circles spheres and stars that he presents perfectly convey the age old devotion of the math minded to this Zenlike quest Number lovers puzzle aficionados and math enthusiasts will treasure this rich and lively encyclopedia of one of the few areas of mathematics where the contributions of even nonspecialists count unconsciously We may die through love as well as through hate for there are absorbing passions under the breath of which we feel depleted like the spouses of vampires Antipathy is the presentiment of a possible bewitchment either of love or hatred for we find love frequently succeeding repulsion Instantaneous sympathies and electric infatuations are explosions of the astral light which is akin to the discharge of strong magnetic batteries Bewitchment by a will persistently confirmed in ill doing cannot be pulled back without risk of death The spell may be staved off by substitution or deflection of the astral current But the sorcerer who releases a spell must have another object for his malevolence or he himself will perish by his own spell because every poisoned magnetic emission that cannot reach its target will return with force to its point of departure Virtue is one of the elixirs of long life and well being While vice is hid by hypocrisy virtue is suspected to be hypocrisy Sorcery whether by spells or love potions is venomous magic We write not to instruct but to warn Sorcerers are often poor country folks repulsed by all and therefore afflicted by enduring bitterness The fear which they inspired was their consolation and their revenge Magical emblems and characters engraved on amulets and talismans are relics of old religious rites the meaning of which is no longer understood Only harmlessness and brotherhood in thought and deed coupled with non resistance to evil can shield us from evil Real protection comes from personal merit and virtue not from talismans Nought is permitted to the virtuous man Love above all in a woman is a veritable hallucination for want of a prudent motive it will frequently select an absurd one Cyanide when not lethal will enfeeble the mind already poisoned by an evil will Stay clear of bitter almonds as well as the kernels of apricot peach and cherry almond flavour extracts such as Amaretto almond milk soaps and perfumes Datura stramonium and other hallucinogens Tobacco by smoking or otherwise is a dangerous and stupefying philtre and brain poison Nicotine is not less deadly than cyanide Moreover the latter is present in tobacco in larger quantities than in bitter almonds But the most terrific of all philtres is the exaltation of misdirected devotion By fuelling the imagination excessive fear becomes a self fulfilling prophecy Goodness is much stronger than evil Rise then above childish fears and dumb desires Stamp out evil influence by controlling unbridled imagination and fanciful speculation Believe in supreme wisdom for true wisdom cannot ensnare your intelligence Poisons can may make you ill but never immoral Weakness sympathises with vice because vice itself is a weakness that assumes the mask of strength Madness holds reason in horror and delights in the exaggerations of falsehood Every human being whether magus or not should oppose violence by mildness chastise evil by good cruelty by tenderness There can be nothing more dangerous than to make magic a pastime or part of an evening s entertainment Magnetic experiments performed under such conditions can only exhaust the subjects mislead opinions and defeat science The milder and calmer you are the more effective will be your anger the more energetic you are the more precious will be your forbearance the more skilful you are the better will you profit by your intelligence and even by your virtues the more indifferent you are the more easily will you make yourself loved Excessive love produces antipathy blind hate counteracts and scourges itself vanity leads to abasement and the most cruel humiliations

Remember that the magus is sovereign and a sovereign never avenges because he has the right to punish in the exercise of this right he performs his duty and is implacable as justice The way to see clearly is not to be always looking and he who spends his whole life upon a single object will not attain it Ceremonies are methods to create a habit of will however redundant when the habit is firmly established We will now expose and stigmatise some of the most abhorrent acts What sorcerers seek above all in their evocations of the impure spirit is that magnetic power which is the possession of the true adept so that they can shamefully abuse it Providence seems to scorn those who despise the martyrs and to slay those who would deprive them of life The terrible menace of hell inflicted by Christianity upon its flock has created more nightmares more nameless diseases more furious madness than all vices and excesses combined That is what the Hermetic artists of the middle ages represented by the incredible and unheard of monsters which they carved at the doors of basilicas Moral equilibrium rests upon the immutable distinction between true and false good and bad one must place himself by his works in the empire of truth and goodness or relapse eternally like the rock of Sisyphus into a pandemonium of falsehood and evil Wash carefully your clothes before giving them away In times of epidemic the terror struck are the first to be attacked The secret of not fearing evil is to ignore it altogether The wise men have scarcely any sorceries to fear save those of fortune but when called upon to advise they must persuade the bewitched to do some act of goodness to his bewitcher to render him some service which he cannot refuse and lead him to the communion of salt The chemist imitates nature the alchemist surpasses nature herself Chemistry decomposes and recombines material substances it purifies simple substances of foreign elements but leaves the primitive elements unchanged Alchemy changes the character of things and raises them up into higher states of existence As all the powers of the universe are potentially contained in us our body and its organs are the representatives of the powers of nature and a constellation of the same powers that formed the stars in the sky
