Australia Harry Margalit, 2019-11-15 This book tells the story of the architects and buildings that have defined Australia

s architectural culture since the founding of the modern nation through Federation in 1901 That year marked the beginning of a search for better city forms and buildings to accommodate the changing realities of Australian life and to express an emerging distinctive and eventually confident Australian identity While Sydney and Melbourne were the settings for many of the major buildings all states and territories developed architectural traditions based on distinctive histories and climates Harry Margalit explores the flowering of these many architectural variants from the bid to create a model city in Canberra through the stylistic battles that opened a space for modernism to the idealism of postwar reconstruction and beyond to the new millennium Australia reveals a vibrant and influential culture of the built environment at its best when it matches civic idealism with the sensuality of a country of stunning light and landscapes for the International Modern Movement in architecture In partnership with Roy Grounds and Frederick Romberg he was noted for his innovative domestic buildings Indeed the suburban home was often a focus of Boyd s thinking writing and criticism and in Australia s Home 1952 he provided the first substantial interpretation of Australia s architectural history But the most popular and controversial of Boyd s nine books was The Australian Ugliness 1960 in which he scoured prevailing tastes in both architecture and popular culture The sentiments he expressed here made him one of Australia s liveliest social critics But his criticism sprang from patriotism and ambition for his country Boyd was a very private man who left few personal letters or records In this highly acclaimed and beautifully illustrated book Geoffrey Serle writes predominantly about Boyd s work and public activities allowing key selections from Boyd s writings to reveal the inner man The Chance of a Lifetime A.
