Díaz, 2020-02-05 Bringing together a range of perspectives from tertiary language and culture teachers and researchers this volume highlights the need for greater critical engagement with the question of language teacher identity agency and responsibility in light of an ever changing global socio political and cultural landscape The book examines the ways in which various moral ethical and ideological dimensions increasingly inform language teaching practice for tertiary modern foreign language teachers both collectively as a profession but also at the individual level in everyday classroom situations Employing a narrative inquiry research approach which combines brief autobiographical reflections with semi structured interview data the volume provides a comprehensive portrait of the processes ten teacher researchers in Australia working across five different languages engage in as they seek to position themselves more purposefully within a critical political and ethical framework of teaching practice The book will serve as a springboard from which to promote greater understanding and discussion of the impact of globalisation and social justice corollaries within the field as well as to mediate the gap between language teaching theory and practice making this key reading for graduate students and researchers in intercultural communication language teaching and language teacher education

Teacher Education in the 21st Century Antje-Marianne Kolde,Ruth Frehner,Brigitte Kürsteiner,Lukas Bleichenbacher,2016-08-17 How can teacher education prepare future teachers for their work in increasingly diverse classrooms How does the concept of plurilingualism inform language educational policy in different countries What are the current opportunities and challenges in the domain of internationalisation in teacher education The contributions to this volume address these questions from different theoretical perspectives and with a strong emphasis on the actual practices in various classrooms At a time when simplistic essentialist biased and discriminatory ideologies and practices see a rebirth in public discourse and represent a risk to education the contributors here take stock and describe some worthwhile alternatives The first set of chapters addresses the integration of ethnic religious and gender diversity in teacher education colleges In the second part the notion of plurilingualism in different educational contexts is explored from a critical sociolinguistic point of view The chapters in the third part present evidence from innovative international academic exchange programs and how they contribute to socio spatial learning amongst others The common denominator in this volume is the notion of convergence the coexistence of people and practices in diverse contexts

Ensuring All Children Learn Ishmael I. Munene,2021-08-23 Ensuring All Children Learn Lessons from the South on What Works in Equity and Inclusion brings together a rich tapestry of cases from three southern continents focusing on issues germane to the access learning and retention in basic education in the context of Education for All EFA It is a narrative of both the disappointment that the implementation of EFA did not go as envisaged and of policy alternatives and hopes for a brighter future The focus on Africa Asia and Latin America permits the reader to appreciate both the diversity of issues central to EFA and the physical spread of the challenges The book confirms that whereas southern countries have adopted EFA as an overall policy goal empirical evidence from the case studies uncovers critical lapses in policies and strategies Four key issues inform the thematic analysis in the book the overall experience in implementing EFA the specific challenges faced the lessons learned and prospects for the future The solutions to these challenges provide avenues for the attainment of basic education for all school eligible
