Kline, 2009-08-25 One stop resource for courses in medieval literature providing students with a comprehensive guide to the historical and cultural context major texts and movements reading primary and critical texts key critics concepts and topics major critical approaches and directions of new research The Poems of Laurence Minot, 1333-1352 Richard H

Osberg, 1996-05-01 This fresh classroom edition of the Middle English poems of Laurence Minot with its introduction gloss notes and glossary enables students of all levels to encounter Minot's poetry A difficult figure to identify Laurence Minot wrote a set of eleven poems celebrating English victories against the French between 1333 and 1352 soon after the conclusion of said victories This volume offers students valuable insights into fourteenth century English poetry and an inimitable English poet's perspective on the Hundred Years War The Cloud of Unknowing Patrick J

Gallacher, 1997-05-01 The Cloud of Unknowing describes the contemplative method centered around eliminating all noise and images from the mind and in that encounter with nothingness finding God Meanwhile despite the austerity of the content the style of the author is warm and congenial and eminently readable Patrick J Gallacher further makes this text accessible to students and teachers by including a gloss introduction notes and glossary This text gives a great introduction to the ethos of mysticism in the middle ages Vernacular Aesthetics in the Later Middle Ages Katharine W. Jager, 2019-07-03

Vernacular Aesthetics in the Later Middle Ages explores the formal composition public performance and popular reception of vernacular poetry music and prose within late medieval French and English cultures This collection of essays considers the extra literary and extra textual methods by which vernacular forms and genres were obtained and examines the roles that performance and orality play in the reception and dissemination of those genres arguing that late medieval vernacular forms can be used to delineate the interests and perspectives of the subaltern Via an interdisciplinary approach contributors use theories of multimodality translation manuscript studies sound studies gender studies and activist New Formalism to address how and for whom popular vernacular medieval forms were made The Language of Heresy in Late Medieval English Literature Erin K. Wagner,2024-04-22 Vernacular writers of late medieval England were engaged in global conversations about orthodoxy and heresy Entering these conversations with a developing vernacular required lexical innovation The Language of Heresy in Late Medieval English Literature examines the way in which these writers complemented seemingly straightforward terms like heretic with a range of synonyms that complicated the definitions of both those words and orthodoxy itself This text proposes four specific terms that become collated with heretic in the parlance of medieval English writers of the 14th and 15th centuries jangler Jew Saracen and witch These four labels are especially important insofar as they represent the way in which medieval Christianity appropriated and subverted marginalized or vulnerable identities to promote a false image of unassailable authority Later Middle English Literature, Materiality, and Culture Brian Gastle,Erick Kelemen,2018-04-12 The essays in this volume consider the ways in which material and intellectual culture both shaped and were shaped by the literature of late medieval England The first section Textual Material reflects on cultural and social issues generally referred to as the History of Ideas and how those ideas manifest in later medieval English texts Essays address for example affect in The Book of Margery Kempe rhetoric in Sir Gawain and the Green Knight anarchy in late medieval political texts and temporality in Gower's Confessio Amantis The essays in the second section Material Texts examine physical objects from pilgrim badges to manuscripts to money to early printed editions and the cultural behaviors associated with them interpreting these objects and exploring their connections to the important literary and political texts of the age such as Piers Plowman Lydgate's Troy Book and Chaucer's Canterbury Tales All of the essays in this collection emerge from the relationships and connections between the issues that characterize Jim Dean's work the cultural material and aesthetic aspects of later medieval English literature So too do they reflect a movement in medieval literary studies presaged by Dean's career of scholarship and teaching that critical approaches to literary texts are best undertaken with an understanding of the complex cultural and historical milieu that defines both the production of those texts and the production of our own work on those texts The Shewings of Julian of Norwich Georgia Ronan Crampton,1994-09-01 This fascinating first person account of the visions experienced by the anchoress Julian of Norwich in May of 1373 is remarkable for its vivid prose and as an example both of early autobiographical writing in the vernacular and of a spiritual document This practical edition includes a gloss an introduction notes and a glossary making it valuable to students of Middle English and medieval mysticism alike The Book of Margery Kempe Lynn Staley,1996-12-01 In this fresh classroom friendly volume Margery Kempe a married woman from fifteenth century England dictates her remarkable life story Far from provincial this extraordinary woman tells us about her business ventures in Lynn her spiritual conversion and asceticism and her travels all around Europe and the Holy Land while on pilgrimage Kempe presents a splendidly detailed perspective of a woman from the rising middle class of the late Middle Ages of a frequent pilgrim and of a would be saint gifted with spectacular crying This edition faithful to the original Middle English text but edited for accessibility to students includes a gloss notes introduction and a glossary making The Book of Margery Kempe an excellent choice for any class interested in religion gender travel or even daily life in late medieval Europe      The Word Made Flesh William Joseph Rankin,2001      Documentary Culture and the Making of Medieval English Literature Emily Steiner,2003-05-29 Emily Steiner describes the rich intersections between legal documents and English literature in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries She argues that documentary culture including charters testaments patents and seals enabled writers to think in new ways about the conditions of textual production in late medieval England      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993
