We're Not Here to Entertain Kevin Mattson, 2020-05-14
Kevin Mattson offers a history of punk rock in the 1980s. He documents how kids growing up in the sedate world of suburbia created their own culture through DIY tactics. Punk spread across the continent in the 1980s as it found expression in different media including literature art and poetry. Punks dissented against Reagan's presidency accusing the entertainer in chief of being mean and duplicitous especially when it came to nuclear war and his policies in Central America. Mattson has dived deep into archives to make his case that this youthful dissent meant something more than just a style of mohawks or purple hair.

North American Social Report Alex C. Michalos, 2012-12-06
For readers who intend to read this volume without reading the first some introductory remarks are in order about the scope of the work and the strategy used in all five volumes to measure the qUality of life In the frst chapter of Volume I I reviewed the relevant recent literature on social indicators and so cial reporting and explained all the general difficulties involved in such work It would be redundant to repeat that discussion here but there are some fundamental points that are worth mentioning Readers who fmd this account too brief should consult the longer discussion The basic question that will be answered in this work is this Is there a difference in the quality of life in Canada and the United States of America and if so in which country is it better Alternatively one could put the question thus If one individual were randomly selected out of Canada and another out of the United States would there be important qualitative differences and if so which one would probably be better off To simplify matters I often use the terms Canadian and American as abbreviations for a randomly selected resident of Canada or the United States respec tively

Psychology of the Consumer and Its Development Robert C. Webb,2012-12-06 An unusually understandable survey of the forces or perception and feeling that determine the purchases we make the roles played by fashion fads and status and the psychological needs that they fulfill The book discusses how children become consumers and how they change as they age Research based throughout it shows how ads use classical conditioning harnessing psychological motivation to create image and sell products Examining Food and Nutrition Jenny Ridgwell,1996 This text has been written to meet the requirements of the revised GCSE Home Economics Food and Nutrition syllabuses and introduces students to details of legislation concerning food and nutrition

A Bun in the Oven Barbara Katz Rothman,2016-03-22 There are people dedicated to improving the way we eat and people dedicated to improving the way we give birth This title compares these two social movements and brings insight into the relationship between our most intimate personal experiences the industries that control them and the social movements that resist the industrialisation of life and seek to birth change
