Between Text and Image Delia Chiaro, Christine Heiss, Chiara Bucaria, 2008 This book sets out to establish the state of the art of screen translation and at the same time to underscore the work of scholars following new paths of investigation both in terms of innovative linguistic mediations being examined and pioneering experimental design The volume includes descriptions of sophisticated electronic databases and corpora of audiovisual products for the big and small screen and the rationale behind them Furthermore Between Text and Image also includes a number of cutting edge studies in audience perception of audiovisual products Finally the volume does not fail to ignore examples of original research carried out from both a traditional linguistic viewpoint and from a more cultural perspective

P 4 de la couv Existence and Heritage Tsenay Serequeberhan, 2015-10-06 In Existence and Heritage Tsenay Serequeberhan examines what the European philosophical tradition has to offer when encountered from the outsider perspective of postcolonial African thought He reads Kant in the context of contemporary international relations finds in Gadamer's work a way of conceiving relations among differing traditions and explores Heidegger's analysis of existence as it converges with Marx's critique of alienation In the confluence of these different assessments Serequeberhan articulates both a need and example of responding to Fanon's call for a new kind of thinking in philosophy He demonstrates both how continental philosophy can be a useful resource for theorizing Africa's postcolonial condition and how postcolonial thought and African philosophy can provide a new way of approaching and understanding the Western tradition
