Judd,2011-07-12 Popular childrens author Alison Uttley Little Grey Rabbit and Sam Pig spent over 40 years writing diaries Professor Denis Judd who knew Alison and has previously written her biography reveals a different side to the writer whose husband committed suicide and whose close relationship with her son is recorded in detail But the magic of the author rings through on every page as she writes about her daily life in Berkshire the red lipped fisherwife near neighbor better known as Enid Blyton and her tempestuous relationship with her illustrators She also writes endearingly about the changing seasons reflecting much of her adult writing These beautifully written diaries have been skillfully edited by Denis Judd one of the Trustees of her Estate and a renowned biographer in his own right Wonderfully written with a truly nostalgic look at days long gone this is a must read not just for fans of Alison Uttley s work but for anyone who enjoys good writing School Library Journal ,2006 The Horn Book Guide to Children's and Young Adult Books ,2006 If You Came This Way Peter Davis,2015-05-19 At each stage of their lives from infant cribs to teen dropouts to welfare dependents to basement shelters for the elderly the people of the underclass are shunned by the rest of the population even by the working poor The cycle is vicious Underclass children get little help in their own homes when they have homes they are shoved aside at school until they drop out like their parents did they are unable to find decent work without an education they have children of their own for whom they cannot provide adequate care and finally they are dumped into human but inhumane warehouses for the not quite deceased America cannot afford to do this to its poorest citizens we cannot afford not to rescue the underclass In the richest country on earth the people of the underclass are not merely a problem they are a scandal Children's Book Review Index Gary C.
