GIRL Nenia Campbell The Armchair Librarian kept me glued to the pages in elated hilarity From the first line I was cracking up and that didn't relent almost the entire time Hayden Casey The Teen Bookworm I started laughing the first page and never stopped I've read the original and let me tell you while I was shocked and couldn't stop reading about that crazy wife and the insane thing she did nothing compares to Luke Young's version I really enjoyed this story A great read Too Far Gone John Ramsey Miller, 2006-08-29 Alexa Keen is the best the FBI has to offer a special agent who can achieve the impossible finding victims of abduction before they can be killed Casey LePointe West is heiress to one of the greatest fortunes in America Now as Hurricane Katrina roars toward New Orleans these two women are finding common ground in a city of ghosts and grandeur Alexa as the FBI's representative in a case guaranteed to destroy careers and Casey as a woman whose husband has gone missing and who herself may be the next victim of a brilliant manipulator's rage From the violent wards of an insane asylum to the primordial Louisiana swamps Alexa is entering the darkest corners of a deadly mystery peeling back layers of family secrets hidden relationships and a twenty five year old crime And as a raging hurricane gathers strength she is plunged into a frantic race against time in the eye of a storm of violence and just where a ruthless killer wants her to be Out Here: A Novel Kevin Akstin, 2012-12-25 Andy Cormier is a sheltered young man forced to confront the nature of human evil and the demons within himself His relationship with Daniela Lubjanovich a young woman still haunted by memories of her war torn homeland has been strained by circumstances most of all his inability to graduate college and now his own checkered past has begun to resurface A budding friendship with Ben Teitelberg a graduate student harboring demons of his own may represent a way out or a way deeper in The Cameronians: A Novel James Grant, 2025-11-10 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage

The Tragicomic Novel Randall Craig, 1989 Theoretically grounded in classical and Renaissance writings as well as in the work of modern theorists this study analyzes the role of tragicomedy in the development of the English novel from the late nineteenth to the early twentieth century Diana of the Crossways the Awkward Age the Old Wives Tale and Ulysses are among the illustrative works discussed The Novel Tim Parks, 2015-07-16 The Literary Agenda is a series of short polemical monographs about the importance of literature and of reading in the wider world and about the state of literary education inside schools and universities The category of the literary has always been contentious What is clear however is how increasingly it is dismissed or is unrecognised as a way of thinking or an arena for thought It is sceptically challenged from within for example by the sometimes rival claims of cultural history contextualized explanation or media studies It is shaken from without by even greater pressures by economic exigency and the severe social attitudes that can follow from it by technological change that may leave the traditional forms of serious human communication looking merely antiquated For just these reasons this is the right time for renewal to start reinvigorated work into the meaning and value of literary reading

The Novel A Survival Skill is the fruit of a lifetime's search for a different more immediate but again systematic and serious way of talking about literature. Developed over many years it offers a completely new account of the relationship between a writer his or her work and the reader. As such it radically undermines traditional literary criticism and the various criteria used for evaluating a work of fiction. Drawing on ideas from systemic psychology Tim Parks suggests that both the content and style of a novelist's work the kind of stories told and the way in which they are told form part of a more general strategy or simply habit of communication that the novelist has learned within his or her family of origin. The reader reacts to these in very much the same way he or she would react to the same communicative strategy in a real life encounter different readers reacting differently depending on their own backgrounds and habits of communication. Looking at the different value structures that can dominate in any family good evil independence dependence success failure belonging exclusion this book looks at how a number of major writers position themselves within these value structures how this positioning is manifest in their writing and how readers have responded to this depending on their own positioning in the same semantics. Thomas Hardy for example a man eager to believe himself courageous but terrified of the consequences of any socially unacceptable behaviour constructs stories which are courageous in their willingness to debate difficult issues but which constantly suggest that any attempt to behave courageously is condemned to disaster. Hardy as it were imprisons himself in a world where it is folly to take risks. He is thus exceedingly conservative in his life while at the same time able to think of himself as courageous in his writing. The Novel A Survival Skill looks at the way different readers in different periods respond to this depending on their own position with regard to fear courage social convention and so on.
